Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana.

NOVEMBER 16 AND 17, 1910.

GRAND LODGE HALL,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 16, 1910.

The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, convened in its Seventy-fourth Annual Communication at 9 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by A. L. Miller, Grand Master.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum present.

The opening ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer as follows:

PRAYER BY GRAND CHAPLAIN H. C. CLIPPINGER.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we, Thy children, call upon Thee in prayer, at the opening session of this Grand Lodge, for divine help in our important work. We are taught in Thy Word that men ought always to pray, and so we come in confidence to Thy Throne of Grace for help in this important time of our experience. Grant to these officers the help they need to perform their duties in an efficient and brotherly spirit.

Bless these Representatives, we pray Thee, with a right conception of their duties, and may all our business be done in the spirit of harmony and in keeping with the best interests of our beloved Order. Grant that each brother may return to his home a stronger, better member because of the inspiration he shall receive in this session of our Grand Lodge.

We thank Thee for the high honor which has come to us as an Order in the election of one of our members to the highest position of our beloved Order. May great success attend our brother's administration of our interests.

Bless our Home for Odd Fellows in a near-by city, which so practically illustrates one of the great lessons of our Order.

And now, Almighty God, we invoke Thy special blessings on us as we perform our work in the interests of our great principles, which flow out of Thine own word, the Bible, which is the inspiration of our Order.

Bless us in our war against all forms of vice, as a helper of Thy church, to make this a better world in which to live. Bless these homes and lodges represented in this great Order. Forbid, our Heavenly Father, that any brother initiated into our beloved Order may fail to get the great lessons intended to be impressed upon every man seeking admission into our fellowship. Grant us harmony and brotherly love in all our proceedings, and continue to bless and prosper us in our State and throughout the world.

We give Thee grateful thanks for our honorable career in the past, and pray Thy guidance and help for a more prosperous and successful future. May all that we do at this session be helpful to the growth and development of our beautiful lessons upon the hearts and lives of those who have taken our vows.

All these things we humbly ask of Thee, our Heavenly Father, in the name of Thy Son, in whose life and teachings we sincerely believe; and for Thy glory, bless and guide us for Thy name's sake. Amen.

The report of the Grand Master, with appendix, being the decisions of the Grand Master, was submitted, as follows:

REPORT OF GRAND MASTER.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Brothers—It is with pleasure that I greet you here to this, our Seventy-fourth Annual Communication of this Grand Body. I hope and expect that each member present will receive some benefit from this meeting, and that each and every Representative present will take part in all the transactions of the business that may come before this Body. This is your Grand Lodge and you are responsible for its actions and you should not do anything that would be detrimental to the Order at large or to your individual lodge, so that it behooves each and every one of us to thoroughly consider every question that comes before this assembly, to act for the best interests of the Order at large and for the various lodges through the State.

District Deputies.

The District Deputies which I appointed a year ago to assist me in my work have been very faithful, and I have been compelled to rely upon them to a very great extent, as it is impossible for any one person to attend to all of the affairs of the various lodges throughout the State. I am pleased to say that I have had the hearty co-operation of each and every one of my District Deputies and have at no time asked any favors or assistance of them that they have not performed and performed willingly. I believe that each of them has endeavored to do his duty to the best of his ability, and to them I owe a great deal of the success of my administration as your Grand Master, and I wish to thank each and every one of them personally for their hearty co-operation during the last twelve months.

District or County Meetings.

Many of the counties throughout the State have held District Meetings during the past year, many of which I have attended, and a great many that I have been unable to attend on account of business engagements. These meetings have been of great benefit to the Order, and I believe that every county should have a county organization and hold at least one District or County meeting each year. By so doing they become better acquainted with the members throughout the county and learn something about what their neighbor lodges are doing, and gain many ideas that are of vast importance to each and every member of the Order throughout the State. In many of these County meetings there has been too much time devoted to degree work and not enough time devoted to the social part. I do not believe that it is advisable to attempt to confer more than one degree in the Subordinate Branch and one in the Rebekah Branch, and then devote the remainder of the time to the social side of the fraternity and to discussing matters for the benefit of the Order throughout the county, or district, wherein the meeting is held.

Restoration of Expelled or Suspended Members.

Since the last session of the Grand Lodge I have received communications from various lodges asking permission to restore to membership brothers who had been expelled from the Order, and in each instance I have granted the request. The following is a list of the individuals who have been restored to membership and the lodges asking for their restoration:

Valley Lodge, No. 627, to restore John Nelson.
Shawswick Lodge, No. 177, to restore Alonzo Hawkins.
Silver Link Lodge, No. 542, to restore W. S. Allen.
Lucerne Lodge, No. 680, to restore William Baker.
Active Lodge, No. 746, to restore Joseph Levin.

Dispensations.

Since the last session of the Grand Lodge I have granted dispensations to institute one Rebekah Lodge and to resuscitate two Rebekah Lodges (see Report of Grand Secretary for the names and numbers of the lodges).

It appears to me that there are a number of places throughout the State where lodges should be instituted, and I have requested at different times certain District Deputies to institute lodges at various points in their county. I hope that during the next term there will be more lodges instituted than there have been during the past term.

Lodges.

The various lodges throughout the State of Indiana at the present time are in excellent condition, with very few exceptions. In almost every lodge in the state, harmony exists among the members and they are doing more or less work. There is no doubt in my mind but what there is not a lodge in the State that can and will do more work during the next twelve months than they have during the last twelve, providing the members will become a little more active and devote a little more time to this work. In a few instances, the officers of the lodge have been dilatory about attending to their duties, and in these cases the lodge has done no good, nor can do no good unless the officers who have charge of the lodge do their entire duty.

During the last six months it has been necessary for me to visit only one lodge in the State in an official capacity to attempt to adjust a controversy which had arisen between the Subordinate Lodge and the Rebekah Branch. This subject will be more fully presented later.

Appeals for Aid.

Since the 1st of October of this year I have received communications from three different lodges throughout the State appealing for assistance, and I have informed each of these lodges that owing to the fact the Grand Lodge would meet in a short time, that they prepare and present their petition to this Grand Body for its action. My reason for so doing was that in each of these cases I have felt that it was an important question to decide, and one that every lodge in the State would be interested in, and for the further reason that it appeared to me that their request, if granted by this Grand Body, would bring aid in due time.

Report by Counties.

I have compiled from the reports of my various District Deputies the following report, which shows the number of lodges in each county, the number of members admitted in each county between January 1, 1910, and July 1, 1910, also showing the number that have withdrawn, the net gain or loss and the membership on July 1, 1910. Sanders Lodge, No. 307, and Martha Rebekah Lodge, No. 269.

Martha Rebekah Lodge was resuscitated in the winter or spring of 1909 and held its meetings in Sanders' Lodge Hall until some time in June, 1910. From what I have been able to gather, no arrangement was made about the Rebekah Lodge meeting in Sanders' Lodge Hall other thau that the Rebekah Lodge was to pay one-third of the light and fuel bill. Members of each lodge carried keys to the lodge room. Some time during the month of June, some of the members of the Rebekah Lodge went to the lodge hall for the purpose of cleaning the hall, as they felt that the hall needed a thorough cleaning. After they had cleaned the hall, some remarks were made about the condition of the hall, and this was offensive to some of the Subordinate members. They also claimed on this occasion that the Rebekahs opened their wardrobes and other apartments in the lodge room where their paraphernalia was kept. The result was that the locks were changed on the doors and the Rebekah Lodge has not been permitted to meet in the hall since some time in June.

I requested my District Deputy to visit these two lodges and see if the matter could not be adjusted. He did so and used his best efforts to bring about a reconciliation, but was unable to do so. On August 3d, I, in company with my District Deputy, visited Sanders Lodge for the purpose of discussing this matter with them and the lodge had known for a week or ten days prior to that date that I would be present. Out of the seventy-seven members of this lodge, only six were present on August 3d, the Noble Grand and Vice-Grand both being absent, and with only six members present, I was unable to accomplish anything. I report these facts to this Grand Body and hope you will take such action as you may deem proper.

Chapman Lodge, No. 78, of Dillsboro, vs. Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, of Aurora.

At the last session of the Grand Lodge this matter was in a way brought before the Committee on Grievances and Appeals. This is a controversy over who should reimburse the Improved Order of Red Men's Lodge at Dillsboro on account of nurse hire that had been paid out by the Red Men's Lodge to a brother who was a member of the Chosen Friend's Lodge and also a member of the Independent Order of Red Men who resided in the jurisdiction of Chapman Lodge. It became necessary for me to appoint a commissioner to take the evidence in this case and report to this Grand Body, and on September 2d, I appointed C. F. Northern, P. G. M., as such commissioner, and his report has been filed with the Grand Secretary.

Our Home at Greensburg.

On October 27, I made my official visit to the Home. The President of the Assembly had intended to accompany me on this visit, but owing to previous engagements she was unable to do so. No one had any knowledge of my intention to go to the Home, other than the President of the Rebekah Assembly, and my visit was wholly unexpected by the Matron. I felt that in order to find out the true condition of affairs at this institution it was the proper thing to make my visit at a time when I was not expected. I arrived at 9:30 and spent the entire forenoon in visiting with the guests and going through the various departments of the institution. On that date there were 136 guests in the Home—82 adults, 14 of which were in the Hospital Department, and they were expecting two other guests to arrive at any time, who would be placed in this department. There were 54 children in this institution—31 boys and 23 girls. Thirty-nine of these children were attending the public schools at Greensburg. Fifteen of them were too young to attend school. So far as I was able to ascertain, the institution was in first-class condition and the guests were being cared for in an excellent manner and the majority of them were perfectly satisfied with the treatment and care they were receiving. I visited each of the dining-rooms at the noon hour to ascertain what provisions were being furnished these guests. I found they were provided with good and wholesome food. The children all came to the Home for their dinners that day, and as a rule do so, except when the weather is bad, some of them take their dinners with them. After dinner I spent the most of the afternoon in going over the farm, which consists of 136 acres. The things around the barn were in good condition and the farm is well cared for and is being made more productive each year. The corn crop is an excellent one. The orchard was being pruned by one of the old brothers, who appeared to enjoy his work and was taking as much interest in the care of the trees as though he were the real owner. The lawn around the buildings and the driveway are kept in first-class condition by some of the brothers who are guests of this institution—in fact, each of the guests who are able to perform any manual labor have an opportunity to do so, but are not required to do more than they are able to do. Those who have charge and control of this institution are entitled to a great deal of credit for the excellent manner in which they are managing the same. Every Odd Fellow and Rebekah, when he or she has the opportunity, should visit this institution and see for themselves what is being done by the Order in the way of caring for the old and indigent Odd Fellows, their wives and also the orphans of Odd Fellows.

Sovereign Grand Lodge.

At the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which was held at Atlanta, Ga., on September 19th, one of Indiana's distinguished Odd Fellows was elevated to the highest position in the world—that of Grand Sire, something that every Odd Fellow through the State should be proud of, to know that Indiana has been honored with the highest position it is possible for one to obtain, and every brother throughout this jurisdiction should strive, during his term, to build up the Order in the State and thereby show to the Sovereign Grand Lodge that we, as Hoosiers, appreciate the honor which has been bestowed upon us. I feel sure that the brother who has been elevated to this position is ready and willing to do whatever he can in his power to help build up the Order throughout the world, and more especially in his own jurisdiction. This good brother has done something that no other Grand Sire has ever done—that is, in the way of offering an inducement to the jurisdictions throughout the world. He has offered to present to the State, Territory or Province that makes the largest gain during the year of 1911 a silver cup, and we as Indiana Odd Fellows, should see to it that Indiana wins this cup. This can be done if each one of us throughout the State will take an active interest in the building up of the Order. He has also offered to the lodge that makes the greatest gain during the same period, a banner, and I hope that this banner when it is presented will remain within the jurisdiction of Indiana. Let each one of us do what we can to make Brother John B. Cockrum's term as Grand Sire a complete success.

Without any solicitation on the part of the Indiana Odd Fellows, the Sovereign Grand Lodge selected Indianapolis as its next meeting place, which meeting will be held next September. This is also an honor to our jurisdiction and this Grand Body should take some action in the near future to make arrangements to entertain the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the visiting brothers from different parts of the world. This will be a big undertaking, but Indiana is able to take care of the situation and will do so, but it will be necessary for this Grand Body to have the co-operation of the lodges throughout the State.

Laws.

My experience has taught me in the last 12 months that a great many of our Lodges throughout the State do not supply themselves with the latest edition of the General Laws and even though they do, they fail to make use of them. Many communications have been received by me that if the party who wrote the communication had spent as much time in looking up the law as he did in writing the communication, he would have known what the answer would be.

In my opinion there are a few changes that should be made in our General Laws. One is in regard to the manner of procedure in case a Lodge has a claim against another Lodge for sick benefits paid out to a member of a Lodge other than its own. Under the present procedure it is very inconvenient if a Lodge should have a claim against another Lodge, especially if the Lodges are in different parts of the State. The sections of the law which cover this point are Section 237 and following sections.

Another change that I think should be made is, that the law should be so changed that a Lodge would not be permitted to loan its funds to its members. My experience has taught me that more or less trouble arises from such action on the part of the Lodge.

I am also of the opinion that a change should be made in Section 5 of the Constitution in regard to the representatives to this Grand Body. I would suggest that this Section be so amended that one to be eligible as a representative to this Grand Body should also be a member of the Rebekah Degree, for the reason that this Grand Body legislates for the Rebekah Branch of the Order and no brother is in a position to vote intelligently upon a question pertaining to this branch unless he is a member thereof.

Rebekah Branch.

This branch of the Order is not in as good a condition as it should be, and I feel that the brothers throughout the State should pay more attention to it in the future than they have in the past. Only a small per cent. of the Subordinate members are members of the Rebekah Degree, and we as Indiana Odd Fellows, should maintain the standing of the Rebekah Degree and keep it at the head of all jurisdictions of the world, for the reason, if for no other, that this Degree was established by Bro. Scuyler Colfax, an Indiana Odd Fellow. During my term I have endeavored to do whatever I could to assist the President of the Rebekah Assembly in building up this particular branch of the Order and have also suggested to my District Deputies that it needed their assistance.

Deaths.

Since the last session of this Grand Body there have been taken from us by death, Bro. Henry Schrader, who died August 17, 1910; he was and has been for several years an active worker in this Grand Body. Bro. James B. Kenner, P. G. M., who died on August 26. He had been an active member of this Grand Body for a number of years and had filled the highest position possible for one to obtain in this jurisdiction. Bro. Charles Comley, my District Deputy of Benton County, died on August 27. He had served in the capacity of District Deputy of this County for some time and was a good and faithful worker.

Questions and Answers.

The appendix to this report contains a list of questions that have been propounded to me and my answers thereto.

The Talisman.

This publication is doing much good throughout the State, and anyone who is a reader of the same becomes more familiar with the work of the Order and keeps in touch with the events that are happening within this jurisdiction. The publishers of this magazine are entitled to a great deal of credit in building up the Order, and they should have the hearty support and co-operation of the membership at large.

Conclusion.

In conclusion I wish to thank this Grand Body and the membership throughout the State for the honor they have conferred upon me, and I also wish to thank the various Past Grand Masters and Grand Secretary for their assistance during my term of office. I feel there are many things I might have done if I had been able to have devoted my entire time to this work, but this I was unable to do. I owe a debt of gratitude to the Odd Fellows of this State that I will never be able to pay, and as I pass from office I do not desire to be forgotten, and hope that I may be able to do even more in the future for the upbuilding of the Order than I have in the past. I feel confident that I know more about Odd Fellowship and am better acquainted with the work and know more of its needs now than I did 12 months ago, and if at any time in the future I can be of any service to the Odd Fellows of this jurisdiction, I will be only too glad to serve them.

Fraternally submitted,

A L Miller

Grand Master.

APPENDIX I. REPORT OF GRAND MASTER.

Questions and Answers.

[Decisions approved when not otherwise noted.]

Statement. Our Lodge has a by-law which requires its members to attend the funeral of a deceased member unless excused by the lodge or pay a fine of $2.00. We had a funeral a few days ago and one of the brothers, who attended the funeral, refused to wear the regalia or march in the procession.

Q. 71. Under the above state of facts, is he guilty of an offense?

A. Yes. The General Law provides that at the death of a brother it is the duty of every member to attend the funeral in proper regalia. See Section 136, General Laws of 1910.

The General Law also provides that the lodge may pass a by-law inflicting a penalty on its members who fail to attend. See Section 137, General Laws of 1910.

Q. 72. Can a member of a Rebekah Lodge who has not paid dues for years, be rightly nominated and elected to the office of secretary?

A. Yes, if the member has not been dropped for non-payment of dues. But could not be installed into office until all of the back dues are paid in full.

Q. 73. Has the Secretary the right to take the books and papers from the lodge room, or should they be kept in the lodge room?

A. The lodge room is the proper place for books and papers. I could see no objection to the books being taken home between lodge meetings, but they should be in lodge room when lodge is in session.

Statement. We have a member sick, in another jurisdiction than our own, who is registered properly and is seriously ill with consumption and is pronounced contagious by the physician. The lodge in which he is now registered drafts watchers except in special cases, when they hire a nurse, and our lodge does likewise.

Q. 74. Which lodge is liable for nurse hire in this case?

A. The lodge in which the brother holds membership. See Sec. 129, General Laws of 1910.

Statement. We have a brother who has been dropped for non-payment of dues and was out of the lodge for several years. He was re-instated less than six months ago. He paid more than one year's dues.

Q. 75. Is the brother entitled to benefits?

A. No. See Sec. 122, General Laws of 1910.

Statement. Several years ago a brother died in good standing leaving a widow. She re-married. Last husband did not belong to the Order. He died a few years ago. Recently the widow died.

Q. 76. Is the lodge, to which her first husband belonged liable for funeral benefits.

A. No.

Statement. Our lodge recently buried one of its brothers who left no widow, but left a married daughter, who lives with her husband in another state, and one son whose location is unknown. The brother had sufficient means to pay all his indebtedness and funeral expenses.

Q. 77. Should our lodge, under these conditions, pay the funeral expenses as provided for in our by-laws?

A. Yes. See Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1908, page 5913, question and answer No. 51, also same Proceedings, page 5915, question and answer No. 61.

Q. 78. We have a brother in our lodge who was expelled a few years ago, and last November he was reinstated to membership. Is he entitled to the office of Vice Grand, he not having served a majority of meeting nights in any appointed office since his reinstatement, but had filled various offices in the lodge before his expulsion?

A. Yes. If he has served one full term in an elective or appointive office. See Sec. 24, General Laws of 1910.

Statement. On December 28, 1909, our lodge at Logansport received a communication from the lodge at Peru, Indiana, which stated that a member of our lodge had been elected to membership in their lodge and made application for a transfer certificate for him. The transfer certificate was issued and sent to the secretary of the lodge at Peru. The same day that we received the communication from the secretary of the lodge at Peru, the brother sent to the financial secretary $2.00 for dues to March 31. No part of these dues have been refunded. The dues being $2.00 per quarter, on March 22, 1910, our lodge at Logansport received a money-order for $2.00 from the brother with the statement that he had been unable to go to the lodge at Peru and sign the constitution and be introduced to the lodge, and that he had sent his dues to the lodge at Peru and that they had refused to accept them, and that he desired to return his membership to the lodge at Logansport. The money that was received on March 2, 1910, has not been placed to his credit.

Q. 79. What should be done under the above state of facts?

A. The brother having made application to become a member of the lodge at Peru, and was elected to membership, it became the duty of the secretary to notify his former lodge and ask for a transfer certificate and his former lodge, if the brother is free from all charges on the books and no charges are pending against him, must grant the certificate, the same having been granted the brother ceases to be a member of the former lodge. The former lodge would have a right to retain four weeks' dues in advance from the time the certificate was issued, but any amount over and above that should be refunded and his former lodge would have no right to accept any further dues from the brother. The only thing left for the brother to do is to go to the lodge at Peru, be introduced to the lodge, sign the constitution, and he would then become a member of that lodge. Until he does this he is not a member of any lodge. See Sec. 67, of General Laws of 1910, also page 7058, Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1910, question and answer No. 67.

Q. 80. If a lodge should accept an applicant and the applicant is elected to receive the initiatory degree and received same, and is then elected to receive the First, Second and Third degrees, and received the First and Second degrees and then takes sick, can the lodge then legally refuse to give him the Third dgree if he recovers from the sickness?

A. No, unless the lodge should annul his election for the Third degree.

Statement. On April 28, 1910, recording secretary resigned the office and his resignation was accepted. A brother was elected to the office of recording secretary but was never installed. On May 18, the brother elected to the office was nominated for V. G.

Q. 81. Under the above state of facts is he eligible to be installed to the office of V. G.?

A. No. See Sec. 24 of General Laws of 1910.

Statement. In the fall of 1908 a brother who had been duly admitted was elected to receive the First, Second and Third degrees. At the time he was elected to receive these degrees he was 34 years of age, having paid the proper fee. He received the First and Second degrees during the fall of 1908 and was requested to come and receive the Third degree. He failed to do so. On May 25, 1910, he presented himself for the Third degree, being then 35 years old.

Q. 82. Should he pay an additional fee for the Third degree?

A. I do not know what fee he paid in the fall of 1908, but he could not receive the Third degree after he passed the age of 35 without the payment of $3.00. See Sec. 56, General Laws of 1910.

Statement. Several years ago a brother of our lodge borrowed some money of the lodge and gave another brother of the Order and another man as surety. The last few years he has failed to pay the interest, but had paid a few dollars on the principal. We have asked him time and again to pay the note, but he will not: we do not like to sue on the note. A short time ago he got hurt and is now on the sick list.

Q. 83. Can the lodge hold any or all of his sick benefits and give him credit on the note?

A. Yes. See Grand Lodge Proceedings of 1893, page 1804. Question No. 23.

[Answer amended to read "no."]

Statement. Three brothers from another jurisdiction, ranging in ages from 40 to 45 years, have secured withdrawal cards and have applied for membership in our lodge by depositing card. Our lodge having voted to charge them a fee of $10.00 each on account of their ages will admit them to full fellowship.

Q. 84. Was it a legal procedure?

A. If the brothers resided in the jurisdiction of your lodge at the time they made application to deposit card, and had moved to this jurisdiction after they had become members of another lodge, your lodge could not charge them a fee. See Sec. 66. General Laws of 1910.

Statement. Our lodge failed to nominate and elect officers during May, 1910, but on June 4, the lodge nominated officers for the ensuing term, and on June 11 they were elected.

Q. 85. Are the officers legally elected? If not, what must we do about it?

A. The election held on June 11 is void. The general law fixes the time of election. See Sec. 25 of the General Laws of 1910.

The present officers would hold over during the next term unless they should resign their offices. There can be no election held until the last meeting night in November unless the present officers should resign, and in that event their offices could be filled by election after their resignation is accepted by the lodge.

Q. 86. Our last meeting night was June 25, 1910. Now, if I date a brother's receipt June 27, 28, 29 or 30, is he delinquent?

A. The brother becomes delinquent after July 1, if his dues are paid for the succeeding quarter after June 25.

Q. 87. In selecting a Past Grand's Committee is it the duty of the claimant (under Sec. 241 of the General Laws, 1910) to choose his member of the committee before the lodge is required to select its member?

A. Yes. Section 241 of the General Laws of 1910 designates the manner in which the committee is selected.

Q. 88. Should the claimant appealing to a committee of Past Grands name his choice of a Past Grand to serve on such committee at the time he demands his appeal?

A. I do not believe that it would be absolutely necessary for the claimant to select his member of the committee at the time he makes his appeal, but the claimant should select his past Grand within a reasonable time after he has asked for an appeal.

Q. 89. Can a lodge be compelled to choose its Past Grand as a member of a Past Grand's Committee before the claimant appealing has chosen his member and informed the lodge as to whom it has chosen?

A. No. There would be no necessity of a lodge choosing its member until the claimant had chosen his member, and if the lodge should fail to select its member after the claimant had chosen one, there is a way to compel it to select a member of the committee, but there would be no way to compel the claimant to select his.

Statement. A brother belonging to a lodge that does not pay nurse hire registers with a lodge that does pay nurse hire, later is hurt or taken sick, secretary of lodge where he is registered notifies home lodge he is in need of a nurse.

Q. 90. Must the lodge with which he is registered furnish a nurse? If so, can it recover the amount paid out, from his home lodge for said nurse, the brother who is sick never having paid any nurse hire to the lodge with which he is registered, neither has he done any nursing as they hire all their nurses?

A. The lodge with which he registers must furnish nurse and they could not recover the nurse hire from the brother's lodge unless his lodge authorizes the payment of said nurse hire. See Section 132 of the General Laws of 1910.

Statement. I am Financial Secretary of my Rebekah Lodge, and have used the seal on official receipts and other papers which I have occasion to do very often, and which would be very inconvenient if I could not do so. Some tell me I have no right to do so, saying that the Recording Secretary should do all of that according to the Ritual. I would like to have your opinion.

A. The Recording Secretary of a Rebekah lodge is the proper custodian of the seal. See Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1908, page 5916, Question and Answer 66; also page 99 of the Rebekah Ritual; but in my opinion if the Recording Secretary sees fit to let the Financial Secretary use the seal on official receipts it would be proper, but the Recording Secretary is charged with the keeping of the seal.

Statement. A brother of our lodge failed to pay his dues for the term ending June 30. He was hurt on July 5, 1910. His dues were sent to the Lodge on July 6, and a request that he be reinstated, and the Lodge voted to reinstate him.

Q. 92. Is he now entitled to benefits from the injury received on July 5?

A. No. See Section 108 of the General Laws of 1910.

Q. 93. Can the D. D. G. M. hold the office of Financial Secretary in his lodge?

A. The Grand Lodge has decided that a D. D. G. M. could not hold the office of Trustee and that of D. G. M. at the same time. See Grand Lodge Proceedings of 1908, page 5909.

The Constitution in Article 4, Section 1, provides that the Grand Master cannot hold any elective office except that of Trustee in a Subordinate Lodge, while holding that of Grand Master. The D. D. G. M. being a deputy and a representative of the Grand Master, in his own particular county, in my opinion, would have no greater authority to hold an office in a Subordinate lodge than would his superior officer. It is my opinion that he is ineligible to hold the office of D. D. G. M. and that of Financial Secretary of his lodge at the same time.

Statement. A resides five miles from Lodge No. 1 and seven miles from Ldge No. 2. A makes application to become a member of Lodge No. 2, Lodge No. 2 asks permission of Lodge No. 1 to accept his application, which is granted. Lodge No. 2 initiates him and gives him the three degrees. A retains his membership in Lodge No. 2 for a period of five years and dies, residing at the same place during the entire time. Lodge No. 2 has a by-law which provides that the members of the lodge within the jurisdiction must attend the funeral of deceased members or pay a sum of one dollar.

Q. 94. If a lodge asks and receives permission to accept a person as a member living in the jurisdiction of another lodge is said member within the jurisdiction of the lodge that accepts him for all purposes the same as members living within the legal jurisdiction?

A. Yes. The jurisdiction having been waived for the purpose of accepting the applicant as a member is waived for all purposes in regard to the member.

Q. 95. Is the member thus living outside the legal jurisdiction compelled under the by-laws to attend the funerals of deceased members of his lodge or pay the fine imposed?

A. Yes, under the above statement of facts, he subjects himself to the provision of the by-laws whenever he becomes a member of the lodge.

Q. 96. What constitutes the jurisdiction of the Lodge? Is it the distance by measurement or is it acts which the lodge may perform?

A. The jurisdiction of lodge is determined by actual measurement, and a person desiring to join a lodge must join the one nearest him or state his reason for wanting to join another lodge, and if the lodge he desires to join wishes to accept him as a member they must obtain the consent of the lodge in whose jurisdiction he resides and also the consent of the Grand Master. If the consent has been granted and he joins another lodge he and the lodge both are bound by the General Laws and by-laws governing the lodge which he joins, unless he should change his residence to the jurisdiction of another lodge.

Statement. A brother who has been delinquent one year, on July 1 paid his dues on June 24 in full to September 30. He was sick at the time that he paid his dues and had been for nearly a month prior to that date.

Q. 97. When does he become a beneficial member or how soon is he entitled to benefits?

A. If he was sick at the time that he paid his dues he can never become a beneficial member from such sickness. See latter part of Section 108, General Laws of 1910.

Q. 98. Has a lodge the right to support a deceased brother's children after the widow remarried an able-bodied man who is not an Odd Fellow and who uses the earnings of the children for his own use?

A. Section 149 of the General Laws of 1910 provides that the orphan children of a deceased member shall be aided and assisted by the lodge, and this matter is left entirely in the hands of the trustees. In 1862 the Grand Lodge decided that the lodge was bound to educate orphans though the widow remarried. In my opinion, this matter is left entirely in the hands of the trustees to do whatever they think is proper in the matter, subject to the approval of the lodge.

Q. 99. Is it lawful for a subordinate lodge to donate a year's dues to a brother who had gone delinquent on last quarter?

A. No, unless the brother is a guest of the Odd Fellows' Home or is a non-beneficial member. See Section 91 of the General Laws of 1910.

Q. 100. Can a Subordinate Lodge donate or remit a healthy brother's dues under any circumstances?

A. No, unless the brother is a guest of the Odd Fellows' Home or is a non-beneficial member. See Section 91 of the General Laws of 1910.

Q. 101. Can a man who has never been an Odd Fellow and who is 60 years of age join the Order as a non-beneficial member?

A. No. See Section 60 of the General Laws of 1910. Grand Lodge Proceedings of 1903, page 3119.

Statement. A sister of a Rebekah Lodge fails to pay her dues on the last meeting night for paying same. Becomes delinquent. Was appointed Right Supporter of the Vice-Grand. Not being present nor attending for several weeks, paid her dues up to July 1 and presents herself for installation.

Q. 102. Should she have paid her dues up to the evening she was installed or was she eligible by paying her dues to July 1?

A. It has been held by the S. G. L. that only persons in good standing are entitled to be installed in elective offices. See Section 1420, Busbee's Digest. I am of the opinion that an appointive officer should also be in good standing before he or she is entitled to be installed in the office and the sister installed after July 1 was not in good standing at the time of her installation and should not have been installed.

Statement. An applicant petitions our lodge to become a member by initiation. He was less than 45 years of age at the time petition was received. He was elected and received the initiatiory First and Second degrees before he becomes 45 years of age.

Q. 103. What fee should he pay for the Third Degree?

A. He should not pay less than $6 for the Third Degree. See Section 56 of the General Laws of 1910. The fee to be charged for the degree relates to the age of the applicant at the time the degree is received and not to the age of the applicant at the time he signs his application.

Q. 104. Is it lawful for the Noble Grand of a Rebekah Lodge to ballot on a candidate for membership?

A. Yes.

Statement. Charges were preferred against a brother and he plead guilty. At the proper time a vote was taken on expulsion and was lost. A vote was then taken on suspension and was carried. By motion a penalty was fixed for 60 days suspension and $10.00 fine.

Q. 104. Is the fine legal?

A. No. See Section 230 of the General Laws of 1910.

Fraternally submitted,

A. L. Miller.

There are some Subordinate lodges which still persist in drafting by-laws not in accord with the latest general law, and some Rebekah lodges which are desirous of having a regular nurse hire and funeral benefit. If lodges would but follow the instructions given at various times in regard to by-laws much time would be saved and delay avoided.

Fraternally submitted,

J. M. STIPP,
Deputy Grand Master.

On motion the report was referred to the Committee on By-Laws.

W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, submitted his report, as follows:

The Price of Official Certificates.

I recommend that the price of Official Certificates be fixed as follows:

Printed, in lots of 500, per 100	$0 65
Not printed, per 100	70

The price paid for printed certificates is $4 for 500, including all cost of transportation, while for those not printed there are expressage and other incidental expenses. The price for printed certificates, therefore, should be $3.25 for 500, instead of $4, heretofore charged.

Not Using Certificates.

Notwithstanding the mandatory order of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of two years ago requiring the use of official certificates, it being made the positive duty of Grand Officers to enforce such order, and subsequently the orders of this Grand Lodge, I regret to report that some of our lodges continue to ignore both the order and the certificates.

Medora Lodge No. 349.

As set out elsewhere in this report, Medora Lodge, No. 349, was resuscitated at Medora, Jackson County, September 30th last. This is pleasing news to us all, but I come to you for specific instructions, as I did at the time of the resuscitation of the lodge (No. 161) at Chesterton, Porter County, a few years ago. Lodge No. 349 ceased to report June 30, 1884, and its charter was reclaimed in 1885, twenty-five years ago. At the time it had $125.12 in cash, which was paid into the Grand Lodge treasury, and a lot which was afterward sold for $40 and turned into the treasury to the credit of the lodge, making a total to the credit of the lodge at this time of $165.12. None of the members of the old lodge joined in the petition for the resuscitation of the charter, the petitioners being others than its former members. Now, what I desire you shall determine is, whether this new lodge is entitled to the amount standing to the credit of the old lodge. My judgment is favorable to the payment of the same to the present lodge, but I do not feel that I should assume the responsibility therefor without your instructions, Golden Anniversaries.

The fiftieth anniversary of the following Subordinate lodges occurs between this date and December 31, 1911:

Necessity, No. 222, Alexandria, instituted.....Dec. 28, 1860
Crawfordsville, No. 223, Crawfordsville, instituted.Jan. 29, 1861
Border, No. 224, College Corner, instituted.....Mar. 28, 1861
Galveston, No. 225, Galveston, instituted.....July 8, 1861
Perseverance, No. 226, Hart's Mills—now defunct.
Luther, No. 227, Jamestown, instituted.....June 26, 1861

Secretaries.

There is no more important officer in a lodge than its secretary. In the knowledge that some are excellent, some good and others indifferent; in the belief that an exchange of ideas will tend to make them all excellent or good, I have asked a conference of such officers in Grand Lodge Hall on the evening of November 16th. I am of the opinion that the attendance will be large, and that many valuable suggestions and ideas will be made. Whether these conferences shall be continued will depend upon the good that will seem possible therefrom; and, of course, your approval.

Brother James B. Kenner.

With the Grand Master I attended the funeral of Brother James B. Kenner, P. G. M., P. G. Rep., who died at his home at Huntington, Indiana, August 26, 1910, and was laid to rest in the beautiful Odd Fellows' Cemetery there, the Sunday following. At the request of the members who attended the funeral, which was a large one, I spoke briefly of Brother Kenner's work and influence. It should not be overlooked that to Brother Kenner is the credit of having drawn the first resolution proposing the establishment of our Odd Fellows' Home, and for several years he was president of the Home Society and earnest in the endeavors that were made to establish the institution.

The following acknowledgements were received from Sumner Kenner, son of Brother James B. Kenner:

"Huntington, Indiana.
September 13, 1910.

W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, Indianapolis, Indiana:

Dear Sir and Brother—I wish to convey to you personally, and through you to the Grand Lodge, the thanks of my mother and myself for the very kind services rendered us on the occasion of the death of my father, James B. Kenner; also to thank the Grand Lodge for their beautiful floral remembrance.

My father's work and connection with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is one of the most precious memories left us.

Fraternally yours,

SUMNER KENNER."

We are passing away. I look back to the time I became a member of this Grand Lodge and note that some of our grandest members have responded to the call of death. Of the Grand Masters then living the following have been laid to rest: Wm. Cross, Jos. A. Funk, J. A. Wildman, W. H. DeWolf, J. W. McQuiddy, Platt J. Wise, D. B. Shideler, J. B. Kimball, W. R. Myers, Enoch Cox, Will Cumback, S. P. Oyler, H. McCoy, John F. Wildman, J. B. Kenner, J. E. C. F. Harper, C. C. Binkley, G. L. Reinhard, R. P. Davis, and M. H. Chappell. Grand Secretary B. F. Foster, Grand Treasurer John Reynolds, and many others more or less prominent and influential. We ought not to forget the great service these good brothers were to our Order, and the abiding friendship that grew up between them and those of us who survive.

Taxation of Fraternal Societies.

Under the present state law the property of our Order is taxed for civic purposes when not actually devoted to benevolent uses. As the work of our Order, and others of similar kind, is a relief to the State of some of its burdens in the care of the unfortunate, and as the funds of these societies are wholly reserved for benevolent and charitable purposes, it does not seem right that any part of such funds, or other property, should be subject to state taxation. If agreed in this I recommend that a committee be appointed to form and present an appeal to the coming legislature for proper relief.

Indiana's Position in the World.

The following abridged information of Indiana's position among the jurisdictions of the world may be of interest, if not value, to my brothers of the Grand Lodge:

Indiana is fifth in Subordinate membership; first in Encampment membership; first in Rebekah membership, and eighth in Patriarchs Militant membership.

In Encampment membership, Indiana is only two hundred and forty-seven ahead of Pennsylvania and three hundred and sixty-six ahead of New York.

In Rebekah membership, Indiana is only nine hundred and forty-three ahead of Ohio, and ten hundred and forty-two ahead of Illinois.

It has one Subordinate member to every 37.6 of the population, which population includes women, children and ineligibles of whatever kind. It is the third State in this particular, Maine (29.2), and New Hampshire (29.6), alone having a better ratio.

It has one Encampment member to 4.3 Subordinate members, and is seventh among jurisdictions in this ratio; one brother Rebekah member to every 5.5 Subordinate members, and is twenty-second among jurisdictions in ratio; one Patriarch Militant member to every 79.7 Subordinate members, and is thirty-fourth among jurisdictions in ratio. One Patriarch Militant member to every 18.1 Encampment members, and is forty-seventh among jurisdictions in ratio.

The average loss from dropped in all jurisdictions is 5.0 per cent. Indiana dropped 2.8 per cent. and is tenth among jurisdictions; of American jurisdictions it is sixth—Switzerland (0.0), Netherlands (0.3), Denmark (1.3), and Sweden (1.8), being of the first nine jurisdictions.

In relief paid, Indiana is fourth; in resources, third; in Grand Lodge resources, first, and in Grand Encampment resources, first.

In relief, Indiana paid out in 1909, $344,590.26, being an average of $883.12 a day, or $39.53 an hour.

The average cost per member for relief was $3.82.

Indiana had one death to every 92.2 members, and gave relief to one member out of every 8.5.

Indiana had a net loss of 208 members on account of withdrawals.

The total membership of the leading fraternal societies is as follows:

Odd Fellows (including Rebekah sisters)	1,952,421
Odd Fellows (brothers only)	1,534,086
Free Masons	1,309,697
Modern Woodmen	952,673
Knights of Pythias	703,804
Rebekah (branch I. O. O. F)	633,615
Rechabites	491,000
Improved Order of Red Men	475,450
Eastern Star (Masonic)	402,379
Encampment (branch I. O. O. F.)	217,533
Patriarchs Militant (branch I. O. O. F.)	24,351

An Appeal to Aid a Church.

In a circular to lodges in September, I took occasion to say:

"There is being circulated in the lodges generally, a circular from Dayton, Kentucky, asking for contributions for the payment of a church debt at that place. I feel it incumbent upon me to advise you that funds of a lodge cannot be used for such purposes, nor may collections in lodges be taken up therefor. So you are perfectly safe, when this circular reaches you, in throwing it in the waste basket without any further consideration or reply."

To issue a circular of this kind is not strictly within the line of my duty as I understand it, and I have been criticised therefor by at least one lodge. My apology is that I wanted to advise lodges against improper appeals from improper persons or causes. This said-to-be-church has been canvassing this jurisdiction for many months, and repeatedly. It has received contributions, sometimes directly from lodge funds, at other times from individual members, to an amount said by my critic of $5,200. Under our law it has no right to make such an appeal, nor our lodges to entertain it, even to the extent of taking up a collection in the lodge room. (See Secs. 150 and 263, Gen. Law, and decisions of Grand Sire.)

In the past I have frequently gone directly to lodges with information, warnings, etc. I would have you confirm my privilege of doing this, that I may, when a fraud shall appear to fleece our members or lodges, or improper appeals be made, or whenever in my judgment the interests of the Order will be subserved or benefited, act promptly that the least possible wrong be done.

As to this particular church, it may be a worthy organization. Every community has such, and frequently they could use more money. It may have no existence—may be a fraud, pure and simple. No evidence has been set before us on the subject. We have no evidence that it is in sympathy with the cause of fraternity and brotherhood, and it is certainly unwise to sit idly by and see our funds diverted to an unkuown church, composed of unknown people in an unknown community. As individuals we may act within our own pleasure and give to heathen or other, wherever located. As lodges, charged with the care of funds intended to provide for widows, orphans, and distressed members, we have no such right.

The Home.

Without presumption, I have been a reasonably close observer of our Home, its condition, management, etc., and cannot refrain from expressing the opinion that in no respect has either condition or management ever been up to the present high standard. The establishing of a directorate is the crowning act in its management. It has not only reduced the expenses incidental to the conduct of its business and oversight to the minimum, but has established a positive responsibility that has brought complete satisfaction and confidence. The Board of Directors is composed of members of practical business ability and of highest integrity, and are carefully and conscientiously looking after the affairs of the Home as if they were their own. The direct management, under the supervision of Sister Lewis, is maintaining the high standard of care heretofore exercised, or improving it where experiences of the past have justified it. The buildings are maintained in perfect cleanliness, the surroundings are becoming more beautiful each year, the guests are firmly but kindly treated. We ought to be grateful for the day when God put it into our hearts to make the maintenance of this Home a part of our work. Every dollar that goes into it for the care of the unfortunate is doubly blessed—by bringing to our hearts the pleasure of doing good, the greatest blessing that can be bestowed upon us; by the daily thanksgiving of the beneficiaries for the care they are receiving.

In connection with this subject of the Home I want to take the liberty to again call your attention to the question of endowment of the institution. I am advised that the Board of Directors of the Home have set aside, as a basis of an endowment, the sum of $250, which was given to the Home by one of its guests, namely, Brother Samuel Dixon. The board has ordered that the amount be invested and the earnings, as collected, be added to the Home fund. The board has also adopted a resolution to the effect that all moneys acquired by the Home, by donations from brothers or sisters who become guests, whether in cash or realized by the sale of personal property or real estate, be added to this fund, the principal not to be used for any purpose, but to be invested, and the earnings of the same being applied toward maintenance of the Home. I think we can approve of the action of the board in this matter most heartily. I have heretofore called attention to the necessity of the permanent endowment of the institution, and I believe this an opportune time to repeat the request. Many of our members throughout the State, who are charitably inclined, would want to make a cash donation, or, if their attention was properly brought to the matter, would be glad to leave bequests to the credit of this fund. Would it not be well to start out for an endowment fund of, say $100,000, to be received from members, lodges and individuals? If we were to ask our lodges, both Rebekah and Subordinate, to give entertainments and apply the net proceeds to an endowment fund, I believe we would get a most hearty response, at least a sufficient amount to justify the name, and it would necessarily grow to a sum sufficient to be of great value to the Home in the future.

The Rebekah Branch.

For many years, if not since its beginning, Rebekah Odd Fellowship has been stronger in Indiana than in any other jurisdiction. It may have been because an Indiana man was the author of the degree; it may have been that the cause of our wives, sisters, mothers and daughters appealed most strongly to Hoosier sentiment; it may have been because these have been exponents and actual helpmeets in Odd Fellowship; it may have been that our Odd Fellows could better appreciate the benefit to the Order in having the support of those so closely associated with them by domestic ties. Whatever the cause it is true that the branch has stood first among all jurisdictions, and it may be due to this support that our Subordinate membership is approaching the 100,000 mark. I do not believe there is perceptible prejudice in Indiana against the Rebekah Degree. If the roll was called today the vote would be practically unanimous in its favor. The trouble is that many of our members have been led to believe that the degree does not need the help of the brother members. If this is true I feel it an urgent duty to appeal in behalf of our sister branch to our Subordinate members. There are now in Indiana 44,566 Rebekah members—30,533 sisters and 14,033 brothers; only one brother Rebekah member to every 5.6 Subordinate members. While Indiana is first, it is very likely it will not continue to be after this year unless there shall come to the rescue the 4.6 brothers who do not belong to the degree. Ohio has a membership of 43,623 Rebekahs, only 943 less than Indiana; Illinois has 43,524 Rebekah members, only 1,042 less than Indiana, while other States are in close pursuit. It will require no great gain on the part of the two jurisdictions named to pass us in the grand total at the end of this year, unless our own jurisdiction shall far exceed its gains in the past few years. I therefore appeal to every brother who does not belong to this degree, who is acceptable to Rebekah lodges, to at once unite with them, with his wife and daughters, and help in the great work the members of the Rebekah branch is accomplishing, as well as adding to the members of the body.

Juvenile Membership.

The admitting to membership of persons at 18 years of age has been zealously advocated for many years, and I presume more than a majority of our members throughout the world favor the proposition, but so far it has not secured the necessary two-thirds vote in the Sovereign Grand Lodge required for its adoption. More or less related to this proposition is the one I now submit for your consideration. I do so without expectation of its immediate adoption, or, in fact, without some misgivings as to the approval of this Grand Lodge, but I believe full consideration will convince the average member that it will be helpful to the Order.

In the Manchester Unity (parent branch, I. O. O. F.) there are maintained juvenile societies, but with what effect I am unable at this time to report. But what I propose is that our Order establish a juvenile branch of the Order, to which may be admitted boys and young men between the ages of 15 and 21 years (and probably girls of the ages of 14 to 18). In this branch shall be taught those who shall become members the principles of Odd Fellowship, its charitable and fraternal work, and the great good it accomplishes for both members and the world at large; in addition they should be given good moral training and direction, and physical instruction. I can conceive wherein vast benefit will come to young men and women from carefully conducted societies with this object exclusively in view, and I am sure that when such members shall reach an eligible age a large percentage will want to and will become members of our society.

Again, I would place these lodges or societies in control and under the direction of Rebekah lodges, the members of which, I am confident, will have pleasure in adding this responsibility to their present duties.

I make it as an undeniable statement that a great part of our losses in every branch is due to idle hands. The member who has opportunity or disposition to have an active part in the duties of Odd Fellowship seldom, if ever, passes from membership.

I submit this not with any request that you commit yourself unqualifiedly to this proposed new departure, but that you will consider it as far as it shall be possible, and if you think best make recommendations regarding it.

The Question of New Lodges.

There has not been a Subordinate lodge instituted since your last session, and only three in the last year. While we have many lodges, there are parts of the State not yet provided for in this particular. If we look at the map we wonder that Culver, Troy, Batesville, Bremen, North Liberty and almost scores of other places have no lodges. In some of these places and others, honest efforts have been made. In some parts there is sparse population, in others religious prejudice prevails, while still in others it needs but the one man to lead to give the Order a permanent establishment. Up to this time it seems to me to have been proper to charge the charter fee and place it in the treasury; but conditions have changed. We are imposing much responsibility upon our District Deputies, and without promise of suitable compensation or reward. It is true we pay them mileage and per diem to our sessions, and for such other expenses as they may incur in the special duties we impose. Would it be more than justice, and would it not be incentive to action, if we should turn the charter fees over to deputies who cause lodges to be instituted in their districts? I know that it will be contended that we have enough lodges; that it is better to have a few strong rather than many weak ones, etc. But my observation is that the lodges instituted in the past few years, ten or twenty years, say, are quite as strong and equally as useful as those instituted earlier. Some of our older lodges are not occupying their fields. They do nothing now and have done nothing in the recent past. In each of their localities there is good material out of which to make Odd Fellows, but they do not get them. In one instance, a few years ago, when I proposed the establishing of a lodge in a town of from 1,000 to 1,200 people, another lodge, one of our older ones, in fact, complained because it was encroaching upon their territory, though the town was eight or ten miles away. I found the old lodge in a town of 2,500, had a total of about sixty members, and of this number six or eight had residence in the vicinity of the proposed new lodge, so far away that they could not give help or support to the old lodge except in the payment of dues. The lodge should have had then, and should have now, 150 members at least, but it hasn't half the number. There was ample room in the new field and the lodge was established, as it should have been. There are at least a score of places in the State that should have lodges, that would in no way encroach upon other lodges, but to secure them is a slow process. If the objection were good we would have lost a score of lodges in the last few years, but, as a fact, I do not recall that we have had a half dozen defunct lodges since I have occupied my present position, and these not because of location; and for 13½ years we have not had one lodge delinquent. I am agreed that we should exercise care, but I am sure if we had some one to carry the good lessons of the Order to the vacant places named we would increase our membership greatly, and do the people of those localities great good. A weak lodge is better than no lodge.

Dropped for Non-Payment of Dues.

There is probably no subject that is attracting more attention than that of how best to arrest the losses the Order sustains from the nonpayment of dues. At the recent session of the Grand Secretaries' Association at Atlanta, the subject was discussed in no less than three well-prepared papers by able Grand Secretaries, and reports have been made to Grand Lodges by committees appointed to investigate the subject, in which the causes leading to the great loss were considered and suggestive remedies made. Computations made by your Grand Secretary of the percentage of loss sustained by each jurisdiction have done much to awaken interest in the matter. These computations show that in 1909 the loss in Indian Territory was 23.1 per cent., which alarming percentage was due, I am sure, to purely local conditions, for in the previous year the same State showed a loss of considerably less than half—9.3 per cent. The loss in the adjoining State of Oklahoma was 8.5 per cent. in 1908, and 9.5 per cent. in 1909. Nearly all the southern jurisdictions are heavy sufferers from this cause. In Mississippi, in 1909, the percentage of loss was 17.1; in South Carolina, 19.9; in Florida, 14.4, etc., and this ratio of loss seems to have been an average for several years. On the other hand New Hampshire and Massachusetts lost only 1.1 per cent.; Connecticut, 1.2; Maine, 1.8. I have sought from the Representatives of these latter jurisdictions the cause of their small losses—method employed to prevent them—in the hope of solving what appears to be an unsolvable problem. Usually those approached were without knowledge of having so good a record and thought it had "just happened." The losses in Indiana in 1909 were 2.8 per cent., and the State was sixth of the American jurisdictions in the smallness of loss. In the hope that some method may be suggested to improve our record, even though we stand so high in this respect, I have prepared a table in the following, showing the record in Indiana for the past twenty years:

Year.	Membership.	Number Dropped.	Per Cent. Dropped.	Ratio Dropped.
1890	33,562	1,172	3.49	28.6
1891	36,475	1,197	3.28	30.4
1892	40,286	1,156	2.89	34.8
1893	41,181	1,552	3.76	26.5
1894	41,888	1,905	4.54	21.9
1895	42,837	1,955	4.56	21.9
1896	43,186	1,972	4.56	21.8
1897	44,277	2,058	4.64	21.4
1898	46,540	1,999	4.29	23.2
1899	49,982	1,823	3.64	27.4
1900	53,387	1,460	2.73	36.5
1901	56,412	1,808	3.20	31.2
1902	59,995	1,688	2.81	35.5
1903	63,745	1,543	2.42	41.3
1904	66,320	1,904	2.87	34.8
1905	68,941	2,088	3.02	33.0
1906	72,578	2,443	3.36	29.7
1907	74,919	2,229	2.97	33.6
1908	76,326	2,273	2.97	33.5
1909	78,415	2,244	2.84	34.9

The average percentage of loss per year was 3.48, and the ratio of loss per year was one member in 30.0. The total loss sustained in the past twenty years is the enormous number of 36,469. Some of these were reinstated, but the average in this respect is not more than one-fifth, which would leave a net loss of approximately 29,000. A few years ago we adopted a system of quarterly notices. I am confident these have done much toward retaining our members and have helped in giving us our enviable position; but they are clearly not all-sufficient, and if there are additional remedies to apply we should not hesitate to use them. In some of the jurisdictions the secretaries of lodges send to the Grand Master, or Grand Secretary, the names of desirable members who become delinquent and a personal letter is sent such delinquents by such Grand Officer. It is claimed that this has been the means of saving many members. It might be well to try this. At any rate, I doubt if it would do harm. There may be other means that you may suggest. After all, any system will fail if the secretary of the lodge is inefficient or indifferent. With such a secretary no lodge can hope to retain its members, or in fact grow or prosper. Our reports will show that some lodges drop large numbers of members and then repeat. It is hard to believe, in the absence of local trouble, that secretaries are not responsible therefor. In any event a loss each year of from 2,000 to 2,500 is too great even for Indiana, and I most sincerely hope a remedy will be found and applied.

Two Generous Offers.

On the last day of the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, after his installation, Grand Sire Cockrum laid before the body the following communication:

"Hon. John B. Goodwin, Grand Secretary Sovereign Grand Lodge, Atlanta, Georgia:

Dear Brother Goodwin—In order that we may offer the membership in general something to stimulate renewed efforts to forward the Order's interests, I have concluded to suggest two things that are new.

I do this, not to be ahead of some one else, not to outstrip any who have preceded me in this high place, but with the sole object of bringing myself in touch with all the members of the Order wherever the flag of Odd Fellowship has been raised.

I propose to give a silver cup, to cost not less than $100, to the Grand Lodge that will show the greatest gain in Subordinate lodge membership, this cup to be engraved as a gift from the Grand Sire to the successful Grand Jurisdiction. The award to be made upon a showing of the several Grand Jurisdictions between December 31, 1910, and December 31, 1911.

I also propose to give to the Subordinate lodge, showing the largest increase in membership for the same period, to be determined in the same way, a lodge banner to cost $100; the same to show that it has been given by the Grand Sire to the lodge for the work done, as herein outlined.

I hope by these means to encourage the members of the Order and the Grand Jurisdictions everywhere to enter upon a friendly contest that will add to our already large membership and stimulate an effort to keep to the front, in the march of time, the position of our beloved Order.

I respectfully request that the Grand Lodge give its consent to this suggestion.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN B. COCKRUM,

Grand Sire."

The generous offers were received with applause and the following resolution accepting the same was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the generous offer of the Grand Sire to present a cup and banner to the jurisdiction and lodge making the largest increase in membership be accepted with grateful appreciation. That the Grand Secretary be directed to send a copy of the Grand Sire's letter to each Grand Secretary under the jurisdiction of this Sovereign Grand Lodge, and request the Grand Secretaries to send a copy of the Grand Sire's letter to every lodge in their jurisdiction, in order that the greatest publicity may be given the offer, so that every lodge of Odd Fellows under the jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge may have an opportunity to contest for the prizes."

Having received an official copy of the Grand Sire's letter from the Grand Secretary, I caused the same to be printed and have mailed a copy to each lodge in Indiana, pursuant to the request of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, in the hope that the offers will prove an incentive to lodges to contest for these valuable gifts. And I hope, further, that Indiana will itself strive for the cup. Our grand building will be a most appropriate place to preserve it for future generations to admire. The offer to lodges is one that any lodge, large or small, may compete for. It will be decided, both for cup and banner, by actual net increase of State or lodge.

We are all anxious that 1911 should be made the best year in increase of membership Indiana has ever had. We have the Grand Sire, the Sovereign Grand Lodge, the field, in fact, to place our State at the head of all other jurisdictions. Some of our lodges always find much to do; some find at least something to do; others drag along without noticeable effort and do nothing. Very often the latter excuse themselves by saying that they are very careful of their standard of membership—which all are urged to be—and yet not a good man has moved in or grown up in their jurisdiction in three or four or more years, if we are to judge from the members admitted, for none have been. An average gain of 6½ members would increase our number 5,000, or a gain of 13 to each lodge, 10,000, within the next year. I urge that we attempt no less than the first general average. I have it in mind that if the Grand Secretary would ask for a report from each lodge each month in 1911, it would bestir the lodge that is doing nothing and enthuse the one that is doing much. I would have these reports in about the following form:

"FOR THE BANNER YEAR OF 1911.

Lodge No. . .

January 30, 1911.

Grand Secretary:

For January this lodge reports as follows:

Initiations, ...; reinstated, ...; admitted by card or transfer, ...; withdrawn by card or transfer, ...; expelled, ...; dropped, ...; deaths, ...; net gain, ..., or net loss, ... Prospects for February, ...

Remarks .....
....., Secretary.
(If R. F. D. address, say so).....Indiana."

I am of the opinion that this will do much to help the cause. Being anxious that 1911 shall be the banner year of all, I hope you will approve this proposal or substitute something better.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Having a lively recollection of the hospitailty extended by Indiana to the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1901, it was with practical unanimity that Indianapolis was selected as the meeting place of that body in 1911. Several cities were proposed and advocated for this honor, but a chain of incidents led to the nomination of Indianapolis. The Deputy Grand Sire, and the four Representatives from this jurisdiction, noting the favor with which the nomination was received, joined in a formal and cordial invitation to the body, giving assurance of a most fraternal welcome. Thereupon the selection was made unanimously, other cities not being further considered. I feel sure you will enthusiastically approve this action. Later the following was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Sovereign Grand Lodge does not expect the brethren of Indiana to furnish to it costly and elaborate entertainment."

This leaves us free to pursue one of two courses:

1. To provide for the comfort and convenience of the Body.
2. To have parade, prize contests, entertainments, etc.

I have no doubt the first course will not be at all displeasing to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Heretofore the entertainment has been on an extensive scale, which has in many cases disturbed and interrupted the business of the Body, taxing physical endurance, as well. But the Sessions of this Body have been made the means of an uplift in the jurisdictions in which they were held. This cannot be expected as a result under this plan, for there is no appeal therein to the enthusiasm and energies of lodges and members.

If the second suggestion is adopted it will require much more funds, for it will call for expenditures for entertainments, parades, degree and militant prizes, halls, etc. As to which plan shall be adopted it seems to me should be governed by what will seem to best subserve our interests. If it is our desire to boom the Order in the State we should adopt the latter course. We ought soon to begin a campaign for 100,000 members, and there can be no better opportunity than this will afford.

Whether we shall decide to entertain in a quiet way or extend the welcome and festivities that all our members may have personal part, is for this Grand Lodge to determine.

The revenues in 1901 for this purpose are set out in the Journal Proceedings for November of that year. The receipts are shown to have been as follows:

From the Grand Lodge	$5,000 00
From the Grand Encampment	2,500 00
From Indianapolis merchants	4,255 50
From State Board of Agriculture	1,000 00
From badges, etc.	1,734 59
Total	$14,490 09

The total expenses were $12,693.13, leaving a balance of $1,796.96, which was rebated in the ratio of one-sixth to those who contributed it, excepting only a few, for what seemed good reasons. This rebate gave to the Grand Lodge $718.22 and to the Grand Encampment $416.66, making the net appropriations of these bodies $4,281.78 and $2,083.34 respectively. I doubt if money was ever expended by these bodies with better results.

You will pardon me for these personal remarks. Not a few blessed friends have expressed concern as to the possibility of myself being physically able to bear the strain of another such experience as we passed through in 1901. I assure you that with the assistance of such true and loyal members as shall surround me I have no hesitancy in accepting whatever additional duties it shall be your pleasure to request or impose, fully believing in my capacity and strength.

Our Grand Sire.

For the first time Indiana has accredited to it a Grand Sire in the person of Bro. John B. Cockrum. A better selection could not have been made. From the date of his initiation Brother Cockrum has been an enthusiastic member who has given much of his time to the Order's advancement; and his earnestness and fidelity, coupled with his great ability and indomitable energy, have placed him in the foremost position among the Odd Fellows of the world. He will make a good Grand Sire and will bring credit and honor to every one of us.

But added honors increase one's responsibilities. If we admit the high office and able man to be worthy of us we must show that we also are worthy the office and him. We can do this best, if not alone, by adding to our zeal in promoting our great institution. It is within our power, if we shall set about to do it, to increase our membership to 85,000, or a net increase of 5,000, by the end of the year 1911.

Our Great Membership.

In my last report I predicted a membership of fully 80,000 by the end of June. The actual number is 79,843, and to the number of 157, therefore, I am disappointed. Many of the lodges did great work, and we should thank them. Upon the whole we are to be congratulated on having a net gain of 1,428 and in the splendid condition of our lodges. We must indeed be classed as a wonderful jurisdiction to have the membership we have. I trust every lodge will do something in the coming year that we may gain 5,000 by the end of 1911, and that we may look to the 100,000 goal within the next six or eight years.

Conclusion.

I would we could more earnestly cultivate the desire to extend our means in relief. I would we could find broader fields for actual help to the destitute and unfortunate. I would we could get beyond the range of feeling that our revenue should be hoarded when all about us there is suffering humankind. I would we could get away from the "not now" and "not at this time" feeling, and could go about looking for the place to do good with what we have at our command. I would we could see aught but golden glory in the totals for relief; and humility and disappointment in the sum total accumulated. I would we had time, the time, more time, to visit the sick room; to lift up by the hand of encouragement, and friendship, and hope the depressed and despairing. I would we could see the bleeding heart beyond the smiling face.

"If I had the time to learn from you
How much for comfort my word could do;
And I told you then of my sudden will
To kiss your feet when I did you ill;
If the tears aback of the coldness feigned,
Could flow and the wrong be quite explained—
Brothers, the souls of us all would chime.
If we had the time."

I thank you most sincerely, brothers, for your uniform courtesy and consideration at all times.

Fraternally in F. L. and T.,

W. J. H. Reedy,

Grand Secretary.

L. A. Handley, P. G., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the Grand Secretary be distributed as follows:

The report of the Grand Representatives was submitted and ordered printed in the proceedings, as follows:

REPORT OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVES.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Grand Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge respectfully report that we attended the Eighty-sixth Annual Session of the Sovereign Body held at Atlanta, Georgia.

It is with much pleasure that we can now report that Indiana has a Grand Sire in the person of Bro. John B. Cockrum. While of course this is an honor to Brother Cockrum, it is none the less an honor to this jurisdiction, and your Representatives are glad to have the privilege of attending the session of the Sovereign Body when such honor was shown this jurisdiction.

On Sunday morning, September 18th, the Rev. W. I. Canter, Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, delivered a special sermon to the Grand Representatives, their ladies and visiting members. The services were held in the large auditorium of the Wesley Memorial Church. Dr. Canter took his text from Luke x, 29, basing his remarks upon "And who is my neighbor?"

It was on Monday morning, being the first day of the Sovereign Grand Lodge session, that we realized that we were in the Southland. A Georgia welcome is something to remember. Southern hospitality surrounded us on all sides, and we must confess that it was even in the atmosphere. Welcome addresses were made by Governor Joseph M. Brown, Mayor Maddox and Judge Robert T. Daniels. From the welcome addresses and the responses given it was easy to be seen that there is no longer an East, West, South or North, so far as Odd Fellowship is concerned, but that we are one great brotherhood.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REPORTS OF THE GRAND OFFICERS.

Grand Sire and Commander-in-Chief.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Officers and Representatives—In this beautiful and historical city of the Southland we here assemble in eighty-sixth annual session for the purpose of reviewing the work accomplished in all branches of the Order during the past year, legislating for its welfare and advancement, and to promote through close personal and official association a better understanding of all pending questions requiring the best thought and consideration of every Representative. In approaching and conducting our labors we should ever remember that the Great Supreme Ruler of the Universe has again permitted us to safely journey hither from every section of our country and from the great Dominion of Canada, and to gather here in peace and harmony to consult together over the best plans for the betterment of humanity, the improvement of human character and of ways and means for carrying on the great work of relieving the distressed, to which our Order is committed and to which we are individually and collectively bound by our obligations.

Let us, therefore, enter upon the work before us with zeal and renewed faith in the accomplishment of results which will be of material benefit to our Order everywhere, brought about through close attention to all business presented and harmonious action thereon.

Your attention is directed to the fact that the increase in Subordinate lodge and Rebekah membership during last year, closing December 31, was 71,292. Estimating the increase since that date to the present moment on the same basis it is safe to claim that more than two million good men and women are at this time enrolled as members in good standing and engaged in the practice of the duties enjoined upon all members of our great fraternity.

Considering the fact that financial depression still exists to some extent, the foregoing numerical and financial statement is very flattering and is an evidence of the high standing our Order has reached among the people of every land in which it has been successfully introduced.

PROCLAMATION.

During the year I have issued the following proclamation:

To all Grand Masters, Grand Patriarchs and Presidents of Rebekah Assemblies, Greeting:

It having come to my knowledge that Grand Lodge jurisdictions are again being flooded with circulars relating to our written and unwritten work, and that the mails are being used for nefarious purposes connected therewith;

Now, therefore, by authority in me vested, and as directed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, through the adoption of Report 67 at the last session thereof, I, W. L. Kuykendall, Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, hereby notify and warn all officers and members that it is unlawful to own or possess and use any book, booklet or written or printed word purporting to be the written or unwritten work of the Order, or both combined, and that every member possessing or using any such work is subject to the penalty of expulsion as provided in Section 1962 of Busbee's Digest. Grand Masters, Grand Patriarchs and Presidents of Rebekah Assemblies are hereby requested and required to promulgate the above within their jurisdictions and notify the subordinate bodies under their jurisdictions respectively to enforce the law by requiring all members in possession of such work to deliver the same to the subordinate body of which they are members, to be destroyed thereby; the fact of such destruction to be certified to the proper Grand Secretary or Grand Scribe, and to direct said subordinate bodies to strictly enforce the law against every member who shall hereafter purchase or possess any kind or character of such prohibited work.

Decisions.

Many questions have been propounded by members of the Order and decisions thereon requested, all of which were courteously refused, with directions to apply through proper legal channels to local officers having jurisdiction over the subject involved as provided by local legislation. Where statements and questions have been submitted through the proper legal channel, as provided in Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, I have rendered and submit the following decisions for approval. That the number is not greater is in my opinion accounted for by holding inflexibly to the rule laid down in said section and refusing to decide any question unless based upon a clear statement of facts upon which a definite, affirmative or negative conclusion could be reached; also upon the fact that our laws have been so perfected through the wisdom of conservative members and former decisions as to leave very little ground upon which to base a statement or question that has not already been well settled; and mainly from the fact that no new legislation or great change of existing laws were adopted at our last session, as heretofore, calling for numerous decisions thereon.

SUBORDINATE LODGE DECISIONS.

Decision 1. Statement. Bro. T. W. Granbery, a member of Long Pine Lodge, No. 114, of Nebraska, with dues paid to April 1, 1907, made application on January 10, 1907, to become a member of Ross Lodge, No. 96, of Midvale, Idaho. On January 17 he was elected to become a member of Ross Lodge, No. 96, upon deposit of a card. Application was made at once for a card, which was granted and issued on February 18 by Long Pine Lodge. On February 8 the brother was taken sick and died on March 29 without having signed the constitution and by-laws of Ross Lodge.

Question. Is Long Pine Lodge, No. 114, of Nebraska, liable for sick benefits and expenses of last sickness of the deceased brother?

Answer. Yes, to extent only of the payment of benefits for sickness from February 8, 1907, until the date of withdrawal card or transfer certificate, and in this case for four weeks or one month after latter date, as said card or certificate which it seems from statement was not received by Ross Lodge until four weeks after issue of same, and that the brother never signed the constitution of said Ross Lodge. See Transfer Law as amended in Report 141, page 778, Journal of 1906.

Dec. 2. Statement. At the 1909 session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge resolution or paper 53, pages 329-332, Journal of 1909, was presented by Gen. M. A. Raney, of the General Military Council, and referred to the Committee on Patriarchs Militant. The various matters contained in said resolution were reported on by said committee in Report 111, on page 389. The report recommended the adoption of paragraphs or sections numbered 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 14, 15, 17 of said resolutions, and that sections 2, 10, 13 and 16 be adopted as amended. This report was adopted except as to Section 2, to which there was a minority report, and as to Section 2 the minority report, Number 112, page 389, was adopted. Section 7 of said resolution or paper refers by numbers only and to striking out "Adjutant-General" where it occurs therein and by inserting in place thereof "Assistant Adjutant-General" or "Military Secretary," one or both, in sections of Patriarchs Militant Code Nos. 35, 42, 46, 65, 73, 85, 86, 100 and 107, but without showing or mentioning the substance or subject-matter of said Patriarchs Militant Code sections, and also without showing how said sections would read as amended; whereas it has been the uniform practice ever since said Patriarchs Militant Code was first adopted in 1893, when amending the same, to set out and show how any and all sections to be amended would read when amended. This practice has uniformly been regarded as requisite for legislation making changes in sections of said Patriarchs Militant Code. See Journal volumes, years and pages as follows:

1894, Volume 16, page 14,023, resolution by Representative Norton, of Minnesota.

1895, Volume 17, page 14,486, Report 38.

1900, Volume 19, page 912, Resolution 96.
1902, Volume 20, pages 981, 982, 983, Report 101.
1903, Volume 21, pages 398, 399, Report 127.

The same practice has been followed in amending sections of the Rebekah Code. See Journal of years and pages as follows:

1899, Volume 19, pages 329, 330, Report 78.
1899, Volume 19, page 332, Reports 84, 85, 86.
1897, Volume 18, pages 15,640, 15,641, Report 232.
1902, Volume 20, page 984, Report 102.
1903, Volume 21, page 397, Report 125; 427, 428, Report 125.

Besides being the legal course as construed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge in practice, it is submitted that it is absolutely necessary to proper and wise legislation that sections of either code being amended should show in what respect by showing how the section would read when or as amended, or certainly by at least stating in what respect to be amended or the subject-matter of the proposed amendment. As the Patriarchs Militant Code has 132 sections, no officer or Grand Representative could be expected to know by reference to the number of the section only and to one or two words therein what change or amendment would be made. Under Section 7 of said Resolution 53 it is attempted to transfer from the Sovereign Grand Lodge to the Military Council all fees for commissions to cantons resuscitated where no Department Council exists, and this by referring only to Patriarchs Militant Code, Section 46, by number and by striking out "Adjutant-General" and inserting "Assistant" preceding and "Military Secretary" after.

Also under said Section 7 it is attempted to transfer from the Sovereign Grand Lodge, by amending in the same manner Patriarchs Militant Code, Section 85, all fees for commissions to officers not in departments having Department Councils. Such attempted amendment of said Sections 46 and 85 of the Patriarchs Militant Code would have the effect of transferring from the Sovereign Grand Lodge to the Military Council about $235 annually, and this without mentioning the fact and without the same having been referred to or considered by the Committee on Finance as required by Rule or Order 38, Busbee's Digest, page 811. Such change of the revenue, if made, would be in effect an appropriation to the Military Council.

Question 1. Is the above recited manner of attempting to amend said Sections 46 and 85 of the Patriarchs Militant Code sufficient, and has said sections been amended under the Resolution 148 and the adoption of Report 111?

Answer. In the adoption of amendments and laws proposed in Resolution 53, pages 329-332, Journal of 1909, there is in my opinion a radical, if not illegal, departure from precedent, if not direct law as well, presented in the several citations contained in preceding statement regarding practice in such cases made and provided, yet I am constrained to believe that I have no power to set aside or annul other laws formulated under the head of said Resolution 53 except where the same conflicts with or sets aside a direct or fair interpretation of the constitution or by-laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and I so rule.

Q. 2. Can said Sections 46 and 85 of the Patriarchs Militant Code be amended by such reference only as was made to them and without showing how said sections would read as amended?

A. The answer to this question is the same as the answer to Question 1.

Q. 3. Can the revenues of the Sovereign Grand Lodge be changed and transferred and an appropriation in effect be made by such reference only to said sections, and without reference to and consideration by the Committee on Finance as contemplated by said Rule of Order 38?

A. In my opinion, and I decide that such revenues cannot be so changed and transferred, especially without reference to the Committee on Finance, the same being contrary to by-laws. See Articles XIX and XXX, Rule of Order 38, Section 1150, Busbee's Digest, Report 163, Journal of 1909, page 417, and close of same and others. Also Articles XIX and XX of Constitution, Section 3; Article XIII, Constitution, Section 2; Article VII, Constitution, and 1661, Busbee's Digest, page 452.

Statement 2. Paragraph 5 of said Resolution 53 undertakes to transfer from the Sovereign Grand Lodge to the Military Council the fees for retired commissions to officers of the General Staff and to Department Commanders, and this without mentioning that it is a change or transfer, said Paragraph 5 appearing as if it were original legislation.

Q. 1. Under all the facts hereinabove set forth, is Paragraph 5 sufficient to change the revenue and in effect to appropriate funds of the Sovereign Grand Lodge without reference to or consideration by the Committee on Finance, as per Rule of Order 38?

A. In my opinion it is not. See part or all of same reference mentioned in answer to Question 3 of Statement 1.

Statement 3. Under Section 3 of said Resolution 53 it is attempted to give to the General Military Council the discounts on all supplies sold to cantons where Department Councils are not organized, and this would in effect appropriate from $500 to $800 annually in such discounts from the Sovereign Grand Lodge treasury without being referred to or considered by the Committee on Finance; also without providing when the Grand Secretary or Grand Treasurer shall pay over such discounts to the Military Council, and indeed without authorizing the Grand Secretary or Grand Treasurer to pay the same at all.

Q. 1. Can such discounts, being in effect an appropriation, be made without reference to or consideration by the Committee on Finance under Rule of Order 38?

A. In my opinion such discounts cannot be changed as provided in Section 3 of said Resolution 53. See part or all of same references mentioned in answer to Question 3 of Statement 1.

Q. 2. Can such discounts be paid over to the Military Council by the Grand Secretary or Grand Treasurer without express authority therefor, and can they be so paid over under the legislation above referred to?

A. In my opinion such discounts cannot be so paid. See same references as hereinbefore cited.

Q. 3. Is it not a misnomer to call such a discount to cantons and not allow it to them, but require the amount of it paid to the General Military Council, and should not any legislation authorizing discounts on supplies sold to cantons not in Department Councils provide that such cantons get the benefit thereof?

A. It is certainly a misnomer. If cantons are allowed a discount they, and they only, are entitled thereto and should receive same.

Q. 4. If the legislation attempted should be held good would it not in effect merely authorize the payment of the amount which such discounts would realize if allowed to a third party, and is it in fact a discount unless allowed to the cantons purchasing the supplies?

A. A third party would most assuredly be the beneficiary of such discount unless allowed to cantons purchasing supplies, the latter alone being, in my opinion, entitled thereto, as they are clearly not discounts to such third party and cannot fairly be so considered.

Q. 5. Discounts have not heretofore been allowed to cantons not under Department Councils. Is not allowing the same under the legislation above cited and paying the same to the General Military Council a mere fiction as to said cantons, and in effect only an appropriation of money from the Sovereign Grand Lodge treasury to the General Military Council?

A. An attempted transfer of a non-existent document would seem to be a fiction in reality as well as in name, which is in effect an attempt to appropriate money without open and direct notice and contrary to Rule 38 and other laws, and would seem to be null and void.

Dec. 3. Statement. A brother suspended for non-payment of dues at the end of the five years asked for a dismissal certificate, which was granted. Later he wanted to get back into the Order, the lodge granting his certificate being his nearest lodge.

Q. Can he apply thereto and be elected to membership therein on paying the fee fixed by our Grand Lodge?

A. He can be elected, but if he is more than fifty years of age he will be non-beneficial and not a beneficial member unless your local law otherwise provides; and in either case the applicant must pay the fee fixed by the Grand Lodge. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 1681 and 1734; also Section 301, page 96; also tenth resolution, Journal, 1880, page 8487, and Section 14 of Article II of Constitution for subordinate lodges adopted by your Grand Lodge, pages 10 and 33.

Dec. 4. Statement. The constitution for subordinate lodges in this jurisdiction, Section 73, provides that there shall be two regular funds of the lodge, to be known respectively as the widows' and orphans' fund and the general fund. Section 76 provides that at least one-fifth of the dues of the members be placed to the credit of the widows' and orphans' fund.

Q. 1. Can the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan, which does not maintain a home for widows and orphans or aged or indigent Odd Fellows, repeal these provisions of the constitution and thus abolish the necessity for creating a special fund for the support of widows and orphans?

A. Yes. In my opinion it can repeal so much of Sections 73, 76, 77 and others of Subordinate Lodge Constitution as relate to continuing the widows' and orphans' fund and the collection of dues, fines and other moneys therefor, provided such repeal is adopted in accordance with Section 144 of said constitution.

Q. 2. If the widows' and orphans' fund can be dispensed with by law, what becomes of such fund already accumulated by subordinate lodges?

A. All accumulated widows' and orphans' funds in possession of lodges at time of repeal of present law are and will be trust funds, and must be held separate from any other fund and used sólely for the objects for which same was accumulated. See Sections 535 to 540, both inclusive, Busbee's Digest.

Dec. 5. Question. The Noble Grand-elect being sick on the night of installation and unable to appear, does the retiring Grand hold over or the newly installed Vice-Grand take charge of the lodge after installation?

A. It is my opinion that where a Noble Grand-elect is sick and fails to appear for installation at the time fixed for that ceremony and is excused by the lodge or no election is then held to fill the office, the Vice-Grand then installed takes charge of the lodge and will be the acting Noble Grand thereof until the Noble Grand-elect appears and is installed, or a vacancy in said office is legally declared and the member elected to fill the same is installed. See Sections 1417, 1434, 1442, 1443, 1446, 1449, 1478, Busbee's Digest, and Journals therein referred to.

Dec. 6. Statement. October 9, 1909, a brother belonging to a lodge in Iowa petitioned a lodge in this (Oklahoma) jurisdiction for membership under transfer of membership law and was elected. Application was regularly made to his lodge in Iowa for transfer certificate, which was granted and issued November 2, 1909, and forwarded to the secretary of the Oklahoma lodge, who notified the brother it had been received and for him to appear at the next meeting and sign the constitution as required by law. He did not appear at said meeting, but sent word he would be present and sign the constitution at the next meeting, which was on November 20, 1909. At this meeting he was sick, and next day had the doctor with him, who on November 25 secured the keys to the lodge room and without any authority from the lodge carried the roll book and constitution to the sick brother's room, where he signed the same. Signing was dated back to the 20th to correspond with the date of meeting. The brother's official certificate was dated October 19, 1909, and shows his dues paid up to January 1, 1910. Our Grand Lodge Constitution provides that membership in the lodge dates from the signing of the constitution.

Q. Is the brother a member of the lodge in this jurisdiction or is he a member of the lodge in Iowa?

A. He is a member of the lodge in Iowa, for the reason that he was taken sick within four weeks from date of transfer certificate and before consummating his transfer of membership, and said certificate should have been cancelled under the law. See Decision 9, pages 428, 429, Journal of 1908, and laws cited therein which are germane thereto.

Dec. 7. Statement. A brother of a Subordinate Lodge is a state charge hopelessly insane in the insane asylum. The members of his lodge know of nothing that can be done for his relief; the brother has a wife and child who need the benefits that are accruing in the brother's favor to help support them. The brother has a guardian, but the lodge, not having full confidence in him, does not want to pay the money into his hands. I find in Busbee's Digest, Section 61, the following: "An insane brother in a state lunatic asylum and in the charge of that institution is entitled to benefits, and the lodge is compelled to pay them to his duly appointed guardian or to the general relief committee having him in charge." Decision 30, by Grand Sire Carlton, Journal of 1897, pages 15, 168, is to the effect that dependent relatives are entitled to benefits due a brother.

Q. Would it be lawful for the lodge to appoint a committee to expend the brother's benefits as they accrue for the support or relief of his wife and child?

A. Yes, for in my opinion said benefits are due and payable by the lodge to him or his immediate family, which in this case is the wife and child. See approved Decision 30, Journal, 1897, page 15,168. Also see opinion and finding of committee in report on Daniels' case, Journal of 1886, page 10,394, and the opinion and finding of the committee in Report 6, Journal of 1902, page 873.

Dec. 8. Question 1. Must we ballot by ball ballot upon application for the first, second and third degrees?

A. Yes, by ball ballot separately for each degree unless you have a local law providing for one ballot for all the degrees.

Q. 2. Is Section 1, Article VI, of our Constitution sufficient local legislation upon which we may ballot for all three of those degrees at one time?

A. In my opinion it is not, and I so decide.

Q. 3. Can a brother under our laws be balloted for the second degree before he has received the first degree?

A. He cannot where the ballot is for each degree.

Q. 4. Is that part of Section 1, Article VI, which says that if more than one-third of the ballots are black the applicant shall not be granted the privilege of receiving the degree, or in other words, can we make a law requiring more black balls to reject an applicant for the degrees than we can for an applicant to become a member?

A. In my opinion your law requiring a greater number of ball ballots to reject an applicant for either degree than it provides for in the case of an applicant for initiation, as said law appears in Section 1 of Article VI of your Constitution for subordinate lodges, is invalid, because it attempts to provide for conferring the first, second and third degrees without any ballot, and for the further reason that it attempts to force members to disclose their ballots through open objection, thereby depriving them of the legal right to cast a secret ball ballot. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 366, 371, 966, 967.

Dec. 9. Statement. The question as to the rights of a half-sister of a member of the Order to petition a Rebekah Lodge for membership has been submitted to me. I find nothing in our law covering the issue. I am submitting this question to you for decision.

Q. Is she eligible for membership in a Rebekah Lodge?

A. A half-sister of a member of the Order in good standing is eligible for membership in a Rebekah Lodge if otherwise and in all respects legally qualified.

Dec. 10. Statement. A native born Hindu, who is now a naturalized citizen of the United States, living in the Jurisdiction of Illinois, desires to become an Odd Fellow.

Q. Would it be right to admit him?

A. In my opinion he is not eligible for membership under the provisions of Section 2, Article XVI of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge unless he can clearly establish the fact that he is of the pure Caucasian race and a believer in one ever living Supreme Ruler of the Universe, as provided in said section. His being a naturalized citizen has no bearing if he is not otherwise legally qualified.

Dec. 11. Statement. On page 376, Journal of 1909, Document 72, the law relating to blind applying for membership in the Order was amended as follows: "Neither the totally deaf, dumb or blind can be initiated into the Order, providing that the same shall not apply to the blind daughter, wife or mother of an Odd Fellow."

Q Can a blind sister, admitted under the present construction of the law, serve as Vice Grand or Noble Grand of a Rebekah Lodge?

A. She cannot, as she cannot comply with certain provisions of the Rebekah ritual in either position.

Dec. 12. Question. Is it lawful for a Rebekah Assembly to procure and give the retiring President any jewel (as official) other than the one adopted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1908?

A. In my opinion it is not lawful to present a retiring President of a Rebekah Assembly with any jewel as official except the one adopted in 1908 for Past President, and I so decide. See Busbee's Digest, Section 2677, Clause 53, pages 750 and 756; also Report 136, page 348, Journal of 1905; Resolution 36, page 344, Journal of 1907; Report 123, page 319, Journal of 1907, and Report 137, page 741, Journal of 1908.

Dec. 13. Statement. A brother of a lodge in Massachusetts who was in possession of the annual traveling password was denied admission to a Degree Lodge in the city of New York on the ground that no officer of such Degree Lodge was authorized to receive the annual traveling password, and that the only persons who could be admitted to such Degree Lodge were members of Subordinate lodges located in the Jurisdiction of New York who were in possession of a semi-annual password of that jurisdiction.

Q. 1. Can a brother who is in possession of the annual traveling password visit a Degree Lodge in another jurisdiction?

A. He cannot. I construe the law as laid down in Article XXV of the Sovereign Grand Lodge by-laws and the provisions of all other laws relating to the subject-matter as applying solely to a Subordinate and not to a Degree Lodge.

Q. 2. Is admission to a Degree Lodge confined exclusively to brothers residing within the state jurisdiction in which such Degree Lodge is located?

A. It is so confined. In my opinion a member of a Subordinate Lodge in possession of semi-annual password of the Grand Jurisdiction in which he resides may visit a Degree Lodge therein if the local law so provides, but cannot visit such a lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction in the absence of any general law making provision therefor.

Dec. 14. Statement. Under the constitution for subordinates for this jurisdiction Section 92 says in part as follows: "A member suspended for non-payment of dues who makes application for reinstatement may be reinstated in the lodge by a majority vote by ballot, within one year of date of suspension, on payment of one year's dues. After one year from date of suspension, upon payment of the fee charged for an initiate of same age or such less sum as the by-laws may prescribe, at any time within five years from the date of suspension he may be reinstated and granted a withdrawal card upon payment of one year's dues and the usual price of a card." Under the by-laws of a particular lodge, under salaries, it says as follows: "The Financial Secretary shall receive five per cent. of the gross receipts for dues collected during his term of office."

Q. Is the contention correct that as a brother has been suspended for non-payment of dues the payment of one year's dues to reinstate is a compromise of the account, and that being paid, can the Financial Secretary claim five per cent. commission on said amount so paid?

A. He can claim and under the by-laws of said lodge is entitled to said commission of five per cent. See Section 92 of your Constitution, said by-laws and Busbee's Digest, Sections 452, 454 and 457.

Dec. 15. Question. Can the paraphernalia purchased prior to the issuing of the new Rebekah ritual be used in the competitive Rebekah work at Atlanta?

A. In my opinion, as a legal proposition, paraphernalia purchased prior to the taking effect of present ritual, if lawful under the old ritual, can be legally used in the competitive Rebekah work at Atlanta and elsewhere where lawfully permitted.

Dec. 16. Statement. A brother, in order to help his lodge, raised funds for the purpose of building a hall, contracts and buys with his own funds three-link pins. He places them on the market in his own jurisdiction and gives the profits therefrom as a donation to his lodge. He fails to sell all the pins, and in order to dispose of them in a larger field he sends out circular letters to lodges of other jurisdictions offering them for sale at a given price, said price being low for the quality of pin offered, and therefore gives full value and does not ask for donation. In his circular letter he states the facts truthfully, and also states that whatever profits he will make on the sale of these pins and also some cards which he has he will donate to a worthy brother who is a member of his lodge and sick beyond recovery, and who has a wife and family. Presumably the object of this truthful statement is to advise those who purchase this pin and card that they will not only get value for their money but the profits would be donated to a worthy and charitable cause, the owner of the goods only wanting his money back as a matter of business. It is a business proposition with the brother offering the pins and cards to recoup what he is out, does not want any profits for himself, but if any are made will give them to charity. In order to show that he is not a fraud, but is acting in good faith, he prints his circular letter under the style and title of his own lodge, but does not use the seal of his lodge.

Q. Has this brother not the right to offer his pins and cards for sale the same as any jewelry or regalia house in any one of the Grand Jurisdictions, and would the mere statement of whatever profits he might derive from the sale he will give of his own free will to a worthy brother in distress as an act of charity, and with no effort whatever to intend it as an appeal, be such a violation of the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge as to bring it within the meaning of Sections 1908 and 1909 of Busbee's Digest?

A. He has not, and the provisions of Sections 528, 1908, 1909 and others of Busbee's Digest in my opinion apply to his and all similar cases and not to any jewelry or regalia houses.

Q. If you hold that it is a violation of the sections named, then could not this brother, by eliminating from his circular letter the name and style of his lodge and the statement that he will give the profits to a worthy charitable cause, proceed to offer his goods for sale anyhow without violating any law?

A. I am of the opinion he cannot so offer his goods for sale without violating law unless he obtains the consent of the Grand Master of his own jurisdiction and all others in which he offers his pins and cards for sale.

Dec. 17. Statement. Please refer to Decision 9, Journal of Proceedings, 1909, page 22, Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Q. Is it intended to apply this decision to jurisdictions that have local laws to the contrary, and can it apply to other cases than those actually cited in the statement preceding this decision; in other words, can a brother who is a member in Lodge A be elected to membership in Lodge B on application by official certificate, then ask for withdrawal card, Lodge B being ten miles or more away from Lodge A, and the brother does not actually change his residence, but remains a resident in the jurisdiction of Lodge A, the local laws being to the effect that a waiver of jurisdiction must be had unless it be in a town or city where there is more than one lodge and applicants have choice?

A. In this case if each of said lodges had a defined jurisdiction of its own, a member of Lodge A continuing to reside within its jurisdiction cannot transfer his membership to Lodge B under any law without a waiver of jurisdiction is secured from Lodge A. See Decision 9, page 428, Journal of 1908, Section 906 and others of Busbee's Digest. In my opinion this case is not analogous to the one referred to in the statement preceding the question to which this is the answer.

Dec. 18. Statement. A circular letter from Tofield, Canada, has been circulated in many lodges requesting contributions from individual members and lodges to aid in paying off a church debt in that place, and other schemes of similar character in aid of other churches have been placed in circulation by letters to lodges appealing for financial aid to assist in the payment of indebtedness created in the erection of church buildings.

Q. Is it not contrary to the laws of our Order to lend endorsement to a money raising enterprise of this nature even though it be for so good a purpose as building a church?

A. It is contrary to our laws and, having no relation to our Order, in my opinion it should not be permitted. See Sections 528, 1908 to 1912, both inclusive, Busbee's Digest.

Q. Is it good policy to read unofficial communications before a lodge and take collections for purposes outside the Order?

A. No, and in my opinion should not be permitted. See above references and other laws.

Dec. 19. I have considered and decided an appeal arising from Canton Columbia, No. 3, of the Department of Idaho, action on the same having been taken by the Department Commander, Department Council and M. A. Raney, General Commanding, and by appeal transmitted to me. The substance of the appeal being indicated by the following statement and question submitted to General Raney, to-wit: I most respectfully submit herewith the following document for your decision:

Statement. A chevalier, having been regularly dropped for nonpayment of dues, makes application for reinstatement.

Q. Shall a majority vote determine the result or shall a three-fourths vote of the members present be necessary to reinstate?

Attention is respectfully invited to Sections 19 and 47, Revised Code of Laws Patriarchs Militant of 1905. Our by-laws require a three-fourths vote to reinstate. Said statement and question being submitted to General Raney by August J. Moritz, Clerk Canton Columbia, No. 3, Patriarchs Militant, and forwarded to General Raney through Patriarchs Militant channels.

On the above statement and question, and being in effect an appeal from the decision of the General Commanding holding that Major Robert Mobley had been reinstated by a requisite vote in said canton, and my decision herewith holding that he had not been legally reinstated, General Raney endorsed thereon: "Respectfully returned to Department Council with direction that like vote or action of suspension shall govern reinstatement." In this case my decision is as follows: Respectfully returned to Canton

Columbia, No. 3, of Idaho, to the General Commanding and other regular military channels with my disapproval of the action of said canton, as well as disapproval of the decisions of Gen. M. A. Raney, also of the Department Council and of the Department Commander of Idaho in the case of the reinstatement of Major Robert Mobley by said canton as presented in the appeal papers submitted. The appeal of Major A. J. Moritz from said action of said canton and said decision is hereby sustained under and in accordance with the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in adopting Report 7 of the Committee on the Judiciary as the same appears in Journal of 1909, pages 212, 312, which applies there regularly to the case under review.

The papers in said case being somewhat elaborate are not set out in full, but will be forwarded to the chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary for consideration in connection with the decision.

REBEKAH BRANCH OF THE ORDER.

Under the head of condition of the Order herein it will be noticed that the net increase in the number of sisters during the past year to December 31 last has increased our sisterhood to 418,335, which is certainly a very creditable showing, and clearly demonstrates what can be accomplished where enthusiasm and pride in the work and teachings of our Order are the rule and not the exception.

I was enabled to meet with a number of Rebekah lodges and nine Rebekah assemblies, in all of which I found the business of the meetings conducted in a splendid manner where the law, work and business was strictly adhered to, which deservedly entitled them to the commendation of all members of the Order; and when we consider the fact that they have provided ways and means for aiding materially in a pecuniary way as well as socially in the erection and maintenance of our homes, in my opinion they should receive some fitting recognition on our part for their devotion to the great cause of humanitarian work for which they have so nobly and worthily exemplified their great ability as colaborers with us in the wide field which Odd Fellowship has assumed to cover. For their kind treatment and many courtesies so lavishly extended to me on all occasions I here place on record an expression of my thanks and great appreciation, which I hope will be received and remembered as a slight token of my esteem, admiration and tribute to the unselfish labor of the devoted sisters whom I have met in the many Grand Jurisdictions visited.

ENCAMPMENT BRANCH.

As will be seen by reference to tabulated statistics heretofore presented in this report, the net increase in this branch of the Order for 1909 is only 1,308. To my mind this indicates great apathy among Encampment members, especially in jurisdictions where that branch is weak or where an Encampment has to depend upon one or two weak lodges for increasing its membership. A number of causes exist, some of which in my opinion have always existed, which have a bearing upon the failure of this branch of the Order to keep pace with the Subordinate lodge and Rebekah branches in increase of membership. I am inclined to the belief that every Grand Representative, unless it may be those from very strong Encampment jurisdictions, is well aware of the fact that many Subordinate encampments are simply on paper and not in condition to aid in any way in the work of that branch and its increase. It, therefore, seems to me some provision should be made or action taken as preliminary at least to a thorough investigation of the various causes responsible for existing conditions. There certainly must be a remedy in all cases of weak encampments and those where apathy has taken possession of the members, and it seems to me it should be found and applied in strong doses, or if no direct remedy exists it seems other plans should be evolved to create a change in present conditions connected with this branch of the Order. This is submitted to draw special attention to this question, believing that it requires close consideration and will eventually have to be dealt with in some manner insuring much better results than appear at the present time.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

From the report of the General Commanding the net increase in this branch of the Order during the past Militant year is 2,215, being greater than in any former year, or at least during recent years, all of which more fully appears in said report, to which your attention is directed. As the increase and success of this branch of the Order depends in great measure, if not altogether, upon the net increase of the Encampment branch, and as it seems impossible to increase Encampment membership rapidly, with all seeming advantages in its favor as at present organized, the question arises as to what action, if any, can be taken to change conditions for the better. Every Representative no doubt has at some period in his career as an Odd Fellow realized that some change in Encampment organization is necessary if it and the Patriarchs

Militant branch are to become strong in numbers like the Subordinate and Rebekah branches, and it seems to me have about reached a critical stage in the relationship which the Patriarchs Militant branch bears to the Subordinate organization. It is self-evident that the Militant branch is not increasing as it should, and if we are ever to have an army really worthy the name, radical changes will have to be made to secure that desirable object, ever keeping in view the fact that the Subordinate lodge branch shall at all times be protected from any encroachment whatever and be recognized at all times now and in the future as the great factor and ruling power in our Order, for in my opinion when the time comes, if it ever does, that either of the other branches or officials thereof attempt to encroach upon the powers inherent in the Subordinate lodge branch or to handicap it or this Grand Body or its machinery in any way, decisive and no uncertain action should be taken at once.

HOMES OF THE ORDER.

Having visited several of our homes, as reported elsewhere in this report, I am more than ever confirmed in the belief that for results nothing has ever been accomplished by our Grand Jurisdictions beginning to compare with the erection and maintenance of our homes, which stand forth as landmarks of the great, magnificent work already accomplished for the helpless and distressed, and as reminders that every jurisdiction will in due time be prepared to respond in like manner. I do not believe any member of the Order whose heart is in the work, who visits one of our homes, as all should do where opportunity occurs, can come away without feeling better for the visit, and that his contributions, great or small, have been extended in aid of a grand and noble cause.

GRAND SECRETARY.

Prevailing financial conditions of the country have been much the same during the period covered by the present report as for the preceding one for 1908. The recovery from the financial depression has been slow and, as correspondence shows, has been distinctly felt in some jurisdictions up to and including the past year. Notwithstanding this fact the progress made has been gratifying, especially in the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges, and a splendid net gain in membership in both branches has been made, though not quite so large as for 1908. There is strong assurance of greater prosperity to the Order in 1910. The net increase in Subordinate lodge membership in 1909 is 41,608, making the total present membership in this branch of the Order 1,534,086. The net increase in Rebekah membership is 7,247 brothers, 22,437 sisters, making the total present Rebekah membership 633,615. The progress in the Encampment membership has not been in proportion to that in the other branches, the net increase for the year in this being only 1,308. The correspondence already referred to gives some of the difficulties and conditions encountered in Encampment work which have prevented greater success, and will also show that conditions are now improving. The total net gains for all branches in 1909 aggregate 72,600, to which should be added that for the Patriarchs Militant of 2,215, making this total 74,815. The Subordinate lodge membership of 1,534,086, together with the membership of 418,335, sisters only, of the Rebekah branch, make the total membership of the Order at the end of 1909 1,952,421, and only 47,579 less than 2,000,000 members. In this total brothers of the Rebekah branch and of the Encampment and Patriarchs Militant branches are not included, as they are represented in the Subordinate lodge membership.

The expenditure for relief in 1909 was $5,356,925.89, being a decrease compared with the preceding year of $143,899.71. The total receipts of Subordinates in 1909 aggregated $16,827,728.66, being an increase of $456,791.23 over the preceding year. The invested funds of Grand and Subordinate bodies of the Order at the end of 1909 amounted to $53,156,910.14, showing an increase in one year only of $3,565,561.90. The total relief expenditure of the Order since 1830 has been $130,987,340.67.

Report of Special Committee on Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Your Special Committee on Tuberculosis Sanatorium, in pursuance of the resolution adopted at the 1909 session, begs to submit the following further report:

Your committee has given the sanatorium matter diligent and careful consideration. We have visited institutions similar to the one proposed and have conferred with various eminent authorities, seeking light on the question and collecting data and information to enable us to act confidently and intelligently. The result of our investigations has been embodied in a series of articles which we have issued to the Odd Fellow press for dissemination among our membership. The fraternal journals have given us assistance in the work by editorial comment and publishing our articles. Many of the journals have advocated the establishing of a sanatorium and have given us suggestions of much value. On the whole we have met with much encouragement from the Order at large, and believe that there is a strong sentiment in our fraternity favorable to the sanatorium, and that the further progress is anxiously awaited. A number of Grand Jurisdictions have adopted resolutions endorsing the sanatorium and pledging it their support.

NECESSITY FOR SANATORIUM.

Authorities estimate that tuberculosis causes about thirty per cent. of all deaths occurring between twenty-one and fifty years of age. Taking this estimate as a basis, the deaths from this disease in our Order amount to approximately 4,000 annually. It is further estimated that for every death from tuberculosis, there are three persons afflicted with the disease, so that there are approximately 12,000 Odd Fellows who are afflicted. These figures are approximately correct, but if we discount them one-third, the fact is patent that there is the greatest need for an institution designed for the treatment of our afflicted brothers.

Sanatorium treatment is highly desirable for tuberculosis. Patients are treated with scientific care, which greatly increases the chances for cure, and are surrounded with safeguards which prevent the infection of their families and friends. It is estimated that fully seventy per cent. of all consumptives may be cured by sanatorium treatment if taken in the early stages of the disease. Home treatment is lacking in the discipline and facilities which produce the best results. The chances are against the cure of tuberculosis at home. The treatment is long and monotonous, and few will follow it closely unless under the constant care of an experienced attendant and at an institution where the best methods are most studiously followed. Of all diseases, it may be said that tuberculosis is the one most imperatively demanding hospital treatment.

While lawmakers are awaking on the subject of tuberculosis, no adequate provisions have yet been made for its treatment. In thirty-six American States and eight Canadian Provinces no provisions have been made by the state or provincial authorities. Tuberculosis hospitals are maintained by state or provincial authorities in only one Canadian province and in thirteen States, and in every case the capacity is wholly inadequate to the number of afflicted. It is said that in no instance is there governmental provision for beds for exceeding one per cent. of the cases of tuberculosis among its citizens. In a number of communities local authorities have provided sanatoria for tuberculosis victims. These are usually designed for the treatment of members of the community only, and other persons, even from the same State, are not admitted. There are also a respectable number of hospitals maintained by charitable societies. However, in fourteen States and five Canadian Provinces there is no sanatorium, either public or private, charitable or otherwise, where a tuberculosis patient may receive treatment. It follows therefore that we can not rely upon pubilc institutions for the treatment of our afflicted brothers.

It is not possible for the separate Grand Jurisdictions to provide for their own members, for many of them are small and weak and not financially able to maintain such an institution. The plan is objectionable for the further reason that it would result in a great number of small and poorly equipped sanatoria, with the result that the treatment would not be of the best and the expense would be disproportionately large. The suggestion that a sanatorium be maintained by groups of jurisdictions under a voluntary system of maintenances, has some merit, but the plan is objectionable for the reasons that harmony and efficiency in management would be difficult to maintain; and for the further important reason that there are large numbers of afflicted brothers sojourning in the more favorable climates and that it would be unjust to tax with the burden of their care a jurisdiction other than that in which they have their membership. The point that we should be careful to safeguard is to see that brothers everywhere have equal facilities for treatment, that the work proceed harmoniously and be done in the most economical way, and be thoroughly systematized. We are thus brought to conclude that the only feasible plan by which afflicted brethren may be relieved and the ravages of this dread disease stayed in our ranks, is by establishing sanatoria under the control and patronage of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

COST.

The cost of establishing a sanatorium depends largely upon what system is employed. A few of the institutions have large and handsome buildings in which the patients are housed. The more recent and approved system is the tent or cottage system, tents being used in dry climates and small wooden cottages in the humid climates; these tents and cottages are used in connection with central permanent administration buildings. The latter system is much less expensive to establish and more satisfactory for a number of reasons. Where tents are used they are, of course, on a permanent basis, well floored, heated, fitted with lights, water and bells, and every necessity for the patients' comfort. Under the tent or cottage system, accommodations for 100 patients may be provided and fully equipped for from $60,000 to $75,000. The cost of a larger hospital is slightly less per patient.

The course of having a single large institution has been generally followed, but we call attention to the feasibility of having two or more sanatoria situated in convenient parts of the country. The latter plan has the advantage of treating the patients near their homes; it saves the expense and fatigue of long journeys and the homesickness attendant on being remote from their homes. Also, too great a change in climate and altitude is not, in all cases, beneficial.

The expense of maintenance depends largely upon the accommodations furnished and whether convalescent patients are required to do light work, as is the case in many institutions. While in proper cases work is beneficial to the patient, as it gives him exercise and occupies his attention, we believe that this feature will hardly be desirable with us. Also, we will perhaps desire to give slightly better accommodations than institutions conducted on the most economical basis. For this reason, we believe that our cost of maintenance may run perhaps as high as $1.50 per day per patient, although some hospitals reduce the cost as low as 80 to 90 cents per day.

THE QUESTION OF FINANCES.

The problem of financing sanatoria such as is contemplated is not so serious as many believe. While a great many of our brethren are suffering from this disease, it will not be necessary to make provision for more than a very small percentage of them at the beginning. This course is desirable, as it will afford experience in management as the work progresses, and such further development may be made as later circumstances require. Perhaps at the beginning accommodations for 200 patients should be provided. We have in our treasury at present $155,000 in the form of interest-bearing securities, for which we have no immediate need. These funds could be devoted to the construction of a sanatorium. It is feasible to raise the funds for maintenance by assessing the actual cost of treatment against the brothers admitted, payment to be made either by the Subordinate Lodge of which he is a member or by the brother himself from his own funds. The Subordinates could well afford to pay the cost of treatment of each of their afflicted members, as it would be a means of economy to them. The average sick benefit is $4 per week, which lacks only about $6.50 per week of being sufficient to pay for maintenance on the basis of $1.50 per day. When we consider, however, that in favorable cases a cure may be made in twenty weeks, with a total cost to the lodge of $200, and that without sanatorium treatment the sick brother will probably linger on the sick-list for an average of fifty-two weeks, drawing benefits to the total of $208, and will then die, so that he is lost as a contributing member by his lodge and his premature funeral benefit must be paid, it will be seen what a boon to Subordinates the sanatoria will be, even from a financial standpoint.

It has been suggested by some that the sanatorium should be maintained by means of a per capita tax, and your committee favors this course. However, no such tax can be levied under existing laws, since Article XIV of our Constitution does not allow such a tax as a means of revenue. The constitutional amendment proposed at the 1909 session provides that the Sovereign Grand Lodge may create a fund for sanatorium purposes. The adoption of this, we believe, will not give the power to levy a per capita tax for that purpose. It undoubtedly gives the power to create the sanatorium fund from any funds in the treasury raised as provided by Article XIV, and if there is any doubt on that point, it will be removed by the adoption of the amendment. However, we believe the amendment can not be construed as increasing the sources of revenue. If it should be deemed advisable to support the sanatoria by a direct tax, an amendment to Article XIV authorizing such a tax should be adopted. There can be no doubt of the right of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to increase its sources of revenue by proper constitutional amendment.

ORGANIZATION.

The matter of organization and government of sanatoria is worthy of careful consideration, economy and efficiency being, of course, of first importance. We believe that no numerous or expensive boards should be created. The matter is largely a business one, and should be so regarded, and since it is one of the most important works of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, our head should be thoroughly conversant and in touch with its activities. We believe that a board of five will be found sufficiently large. Of these, three should be brothers selected for their ability and diligence, and the Grand Sire and Deputy Grand Sire should be members. This board should have full control of all questions affecting the sanatorium, subject to such rules as may be adopted from time to time, and to specific instructions given by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Matters of mere detail should be left largely to the discretion of the board. The creation of this board will in our judgment require a constitutional amendment, and for that reason a recommendation on the subject is not within the scope of this report.

RECOMMENDATION.

In pursuance of the views we have outlined, the members of your committee in their capacity as Representatives will submit amendments to our Constitution designed to obviate some of the legal difficulties pointed out. In order that the work may be kept up during the interval between sessions, we recommend that a special committee of three be appointed to further consider the subject and to report at our next annual session; the Sovereign Grand Lodge to be at no expense in this connection.

The report of the Special Committee on Tuberculosis Sanatorium received more attention than any other matter that was before the Sovereign Body. The report was made a special order of business, and after a somewhat thorough discussion and a roll-call the report was not adopted. The matter will more than likely be presented again at the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and we deem it of such importance that some action should be taken by this Grand Lodge as to the desire and wishes of the Odd Fellows of this jurisdiction.

ELECTION OF GRAND OFFICERS.

The following Grand Officers were elected: Grand Sire, John B. Cockrum, of Indiana; Grand Secretary, John B. Goodwin, of Maryland; Grand Treasurer, M. Richards Muckle, of Pennsylvania; Deputy Grand Sire, C. A. Keller, of Texas.

Sovereign Body Our Guests Next Year.

After considerable discussion it was decided by a unanimous vote that the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge should be held at Indianapolis. This meeting will and does mean much to the Odd Fellows of Indiana. As we have said before, Indiana is now honored by having a Grand Sire, the Odd Fellows of this jurisdiction should rally and show by their work that we appreciate the honor of not alone of having a Grand Sire, but also of having the Sovereign Body as our guests at their next session, and your Representatives would recommend that some action be taken by this Grand Body at this session to formulate plans and means to entertain our guests at the next meeting of the Sovereign Body.

Regarding it as a special honor and privilege to represent the 80,000 Odd Fellows and the 45,000 Rebekahs of this jurisdiction, we have nevertheless felt the great responsibility, and now our duty having been performed we desire to say in conclusion that we attempted to do our duty. We are

Fraternally yours,

ELMER E. HASTINGS,
HORACE M. KEAN,
Grand Representatives.

The report of the Home Directors was submitted and ordered printed in the proceedings, as follows:

REPORT OF HOME DIRECTORS.

To the Rebekah Assembly, the Grand Lodge and the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Dear Sisters and Brothers—The Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows Home Association beg to submit their second annual report.

HOME BABIES

The second annual meeting of the Board of Directors was held in the office of the Grand Secretary on Monday, November 7, 1910, at 10 o'clock a. m., Sister Lula B. Kean, President of the Board, presiding. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

Vice-President, Elmer E. Hastings.
Treasurer, W. E. Longley.
Secretary, Annie W. LaFollette.

The Board of Directors has met once a month during the past year in an official capacity, transacting the business coming before it. We have endeavored to give each item careful consideration, trying to conserve the various interests in a conscientious manner. The different members of the board have visited the Home individually during the year, thereby keeping in touch with the conditions surrounding same. We feel that we are entitled to have a pardonable pride in the achievements of this noble institution, made possible by the unselfish generosity of the members of our Order. We invite a close scrutiny of the following reports, that you may become conversant with the details of the management of the Home.

Superintendent's Report.

To the Board of Directors of the I. O. O. F. Home of Indiana:

We find ourselves well advanced in our eleventh year's work; also find that prosperity and blessings have attended us. During the year there has been considerable sickness among our aged, also a number of deaths. As you read the list of the departed it may seem large to you, but when you stop to consider the number cared for and the very feeble condition many are in when they come to us, it is then you will see it in the true light. It is here you find the lame, the halt, the blind, the paralytic, and those feeble from the weight of years. No one can realize the class of people we are caring for, or the great work that is being done, unless he could come into the Home and see the family as they are from day to day. All is done to relieve suffering that can possibly be, and yet our afflicted must suffer more or less. It is surprising how very patient many of them are through it all. We had a siege of measles among the children—about twenty-three in all—but they recovered with no bad effects. At present our children are in almost perfect health. All are in school except fifteen, who are too young. We have more small children than at any time since the Home opened. We endeavor to teach them industry by having them assist in the Home in every way they can. In fact, old and young alike, who are able, must make themselves useful. The purpose is a double one—first, because we need their assistance, and second, because they are happier when busy. Idleness is the road to discontent and restlessness, and when this spirit gets into a heart and life it is likely to be contagious. It has been fittingly said that we are only able to give out the stock we have on hand, so we should look well to the matter of storing ourselves with the virtues that will not only be for our own good, but reach out to those about us. Today is our day of opportunity, let not the sun settle back in the western sky without some deed of kindness or act of helpfulness.

We have made an effort during the year to keep everything about the Home and farm in good repair. We constantly fertilize the ground with not only the waste from our own barn, but also from a livery barn. Our ground is in a high state of cultivation. We built a silo, which we expect will be quite profitable for our dairy cattle.

Conclusion.

I feel sure that as you read the report of the year's work each one of you will take a new interest in the work you are doing for the Home family, for it is here you find the various ages ranging from two and one-half years to ninety-three. Each one of you has equal value invested and, I am quite sure, an interest in every member of the family, for they are your brothers and sisters; also orphans. It is here the true principles of the Order are being lived over day after day, caring for those in distress and need, educating the orphan, giving home in its truest sense that is possible when the family home has been broken up. We are endeavoring each day to smooth the pathway down the western slope of life toward the setting of life's sun, so the tints and hues of the departing days may be beautiful, closing with all the glories that should attend the ending of a ripe old age; giving care and love to the little ones, who are in the very morning of life, we are endeavoring to steady them and help them to start in the way that will lead them to lives of usefulness. With these varied ages and conditions there are some difficult questions arise, and sometimes we scarcely know which way to turn or what to do, but in these testing times we hold steady, knowing that the way is not always obscure, the clearing will come. Many of you have been helpful by your words of encouragement and acts of kindness, so we renew our courage and press on, knowing the flag of effort and success must not fall to half-mast, but be unfurled to its fullest capacity; the standard must not be lowered, but we must press onward and upward.

Fraternally,

MARY SMITH LEWIS,
Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

GREENSBURG, IND., NOV. 2, 1910.

To the Board of Directors of the I. O. O. F. Home of Indiana:

This annual report includes dates from October 31, 1909, to November 1, 1910. During November I made 31 visits, 326 examinations and 685 prescriptions. In December I made 33 visits, 411 examinations and 868 prescriptions, an average of 11 examinations and 24 prescriptions a visit. For January, February, March and April there was an average of nine examinations and 16 prescriptions a visit.

In November there were four deaths: One female, aged 63, abscess right ovary and toxæmia; one male, aged 57, chronic catarrh of the bile ducts, hydrocele and gangrene of the scrotum; one female, aged 69, death sudden from disease of heart, result of rheumatism; one male, locomotor ataxia, paralysis lower extremities, abscess of back.

In December there were two deaths: One male, aged 79, death caused by gastric and duodenal ulcer. Immediate cause of death, hemorrhage; one male, aged 64, cerebral softening, total paralysis.

In January three deaths: One male, aged 80, chronic Bright's disease, and one male, aged 59, renal cirrhosis, heart disease with ascites and general anasarca, and one male, aged 82, disease of heart.

In April, one male, from chronic gastritis, pernicious anaemia. A total of ten deaths in six months.

Up to April 30, the only infectious or contagious disease was measles, of which there were 23 cases. All well or convalescent, with no bad results apparent. We have not had any case of fever or pneumonia among the guests. No death among the children since the Home has been occupied.

There have been admitted during the last nine months, several children of scrofulous or tuberculosis diathesis, some of whom are feeble-minded. There are 13 men, and nearly that many females, who require constant aid and attention, and none likely to live more than a few months. They have various afflictions, from mild senility to almost total paralysis, all incurable and hourly charges to the nurses and attendants.

The absence of miasmatic and infectious diseases is evidence of the sanitary condition of the Home and surroundings.

In the month of May I made 29 visits, with an average of 13 examinations and 27 prescriptions a visit. There were two cases of pneumonia among the boys in the west dormitory, I believed, caused by disobedience of orders by the governess in charge of that ward regarding ventilation. There were no other cases after the former rules of airing the room day and night was resumed.

In June there were 30 visits and one call, with an average of 15 examinations and 30 prescriptions for each visit. There were two deaths, one male, aged 54, from pulmonary tuberculosis, and one female, aged 81, from senility and arterio-sclerosis. There were two cases of malarial fever in recent admissions. There was also one case of catarrhal fever in boy, aged 14 years, due to want of proper ventilation in the West dormitory.

In July there were 31 visits and five special calls, making an average of 16 examinations and 32 prescriptions for the regular visits—18 examinations and 42 prescriptions additional.

Adam Record, aged 80, died from senility and general debility, caused by necrosis of the bones of the left hand and the infirmities of age.

John L. Brant, aged 58, died from locomotor ataxia, third stage paralysis of lower extremities, anæmia and general debility.

In August there were 31 daily visits and two extra calls, an average of 18 examinations and 35 prescriptions for regular visits, and 4 examinations and six prescriptions at calls.

Mrs. Lightner, aged 76, died from tuberculosis of lungs and bowels.

During the months of July and August, there were four cases of a mild form of malarial fever and other evidences of malaria in number one; to a less extent in numbers two and three. Inspection failed to find a cause for this. There were no pools of water, evidence of deficient drainage, damp cellar walls or other conditions that would favor chills. I guess we will put it on the mosquitoes that are generated in the creek to the east and blown there by favorable winds. This state of affairs made it necessary to give prophylactic doses of quinine to all the children and the guests in the East building during the summer, and alertness for malarial manifestations in the rest of the building, so as to meet such conditions at once. We also had four cases of ileocolitis (flux) in July and August, and a few cases of summer diarrhœa, among the children mostly, but also among adults to a less extent, due to dietetic causes. Simple advice and suggestions corrected this and an immediate abatement followed.

In September I made 28 regular visits, with an average of 19 examinations and 32 prescriptions at each regular visit, and seven calls or emergency calls with the necessary examinations and prescriptions—32.

There were no deaths in September.

During the month of October I made 28 regular visits, with an average of 26 examinations and 44 prescriptions at each visit, or about one and one-half prescriptions to each case, and one extra visit and attention.

There were no deaths in October.

For comparison I find in the six months ending October 31, 1909, that for each visit there were nine examinations and 18 prescriptions, while for the six months ending October 31, 1910, there were 18 examinations and 33 prescriptions for each visit, not including the extra calls.

This shows double the amount of sickness in the latter period, a very small proportion of which was among the children, a greater majority being among the infirm, from age, and new additions with painful and incurable diseases. A glance at the monthly statements shows that the increase has been progressive and not due to epidemic or other influences but age and irreparable results of disease.

There are 33 between the ages of 70 and 80, and 20 between 80 and 92. One male totally blind and nearly totally deaf. Two females totally blind.

There are 19 paralytics or otherwise helpless, and several whose mental condition is so bad that they require the watchful care of the nurses all the time.

We have at this time eight children under observation and treatment for a scrofulous cachexia, as manifested by enlarged glands, purulent discharges from the nose and ears and various forms of skin disease. These children had measles last March and April, and were apparently well when discharged from the hospital. They are all physically and mentally improved. An abatement of vigilance and neglect in giving the medicine for a few days shows a remaining taint that prompts a return to the former treatment.

The sanitary conditions of the buildings and surroundings are good.

The drainage is perfect. The service on the part of the nurses and attendants is good, kind and attentive.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. ALEXANDER, M. D.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals herewith submits its report:

We have considered the appeals referred to us and the fol-

No. 1337.

Wesley Fellers vs. Allen Lodge, No. 540.

Opinion by Geo. Shirts, P. G. Rep.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

At the last session of the Grand Lodge the above entitled cause was reversed upon the sole ground that the record was said to show that appellant had been granted a withdrawal card before the charges were filed.

A petition for rehearing has been filed upon the ground that said alleged fact, the basis of said opinion, was not true, and a re-examination of the record shows that the writer of that opinion was in error as to such fact; that the truth was that such card was granted, not to appellant, but to the aggrieved party.

Nothing was decided concerning the merits at the last session, and, therefore, as the rehearing should be granted, we now decide the case upon its merits, as shown by the record.

Appellant was tried and suspended for eighteen months upon a charge of using to and concerning a brother, language too vile here to be repeated. The evidence fully sustained the charge. Indeed, though appellant appeared, he did not testify, nor was any evidence offered in his behalf which could have had controlling influence with the trial committee.

If there were any circumstances in mitigation of the offense, appellant made no effort to show them; but the lodge tempered the severity of the punishment by suspension only, and we can find nothing in the record of which the appellant can legally complain. We therefore offer the following:

Resolved, First, that a rehearing be, and the same is now granted herein.

Second. That the judgment of suspension from which this appeal is taken be in all things affirmed.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. SHIRTS.
R. W. McBRIDE.

No. 1340.

In the matter of Appeal of Chapman Lodge, No. 78, from the Decision of the D. D. G. M. and Grand Master.

Opinion by H. F. Fulling, P. G.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

In accordance with the recommendation of the Grand Lodge at its May session, 1910, pages 7099 to 7102, Chapman Lodge, No. 78, and Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, have each filed a statement of facts setting out their respective contentions in this matter, and the facts being controverted, the Grand Master, on September 2, 1910, appointed Brother C. F. Northern a commissioner to take the evidence and make his finding. The commissioner notified the lodges, took the evidence, and reports his finding as follows:

GREENSBURG, IND., November 1, 1910.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

From the statement of facts herein contained in the case between Chapman Lodge, No. 78, of Dillsboro, Ind., and Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, of Aurora, Ind., I find that Brother Harry Wrede was a member of Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, in good standing.

That he was at the time of this sickness living in Dillsboro, and that he had never registered with Chapman Lodge, No. 78, as the laws of the Order require.

I find, however, that Brother Wrede was taken violently ill with typhoid fever in Dillsboro; that the members of Chapman Lodge, No. 78, were consulted by members of Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men in regard to the nursing of Brother Wrede. In fact, they sent a nurse one night, and that the physician demanded at the outstart a trained nurse, and while no official of Chapman Lodge authorized the employment of a trained nurse, it was conveyed to the officers of the Red Men that the Odd Fellows would do what was right in the matter, by influential members of Chapman Lodge, No. 78, and that the nurse should be secured. The officials of Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men therefore, in good faith, employed a nurse and paid said nurse $75, fully expecting to be reimbursed by the Odd Fellows. This is admitted, both by Chapman Lodge and Chosen Friends Lodge.

Now, I hold that under the law Brother Harry Wrede was not entitled to attention benefits. That Odd Fellows Lodges cannot, under the law, pay full price upon the command of a physician for trained nurses. Yet the Odd Fellows do owe Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men at Dillsboro, Ind., one-half of the bill paid in good faith by them for trained nurse who waited upon Brother Harry Wrede.

It is a matter of evidence that Chosen Friends Lodge instructed Chapman Lodge to attend to Harry Wrede only according to law, and that neither of these lodges are under the law liable for the $37.50 to Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men, but there is a moral obligation that we, as Odd Fellows and as honest men, cannot ignore.

Therefore, as commissioner, I would recommend that Chapman Lodge, No. 78, and Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, I. O. O. F., each pay one-half, or $18.75 each to Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men at Dillsboro, Ind. My reason for this decision is that by general understanding of Chapman Lodge and officers of Red Men, that in some way he should be cared for, and that Brother Wrede was a member of Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, and we do, in fact, regardless of technicalities, nurse the sick. This is a moral obligation and should be met and paid to our sister fraternity cheerfully. If not, then the Grand Lodge of Indiana ought to pay the bill. We cannot afford to act in bad faith and delay just bills with other great fraternities over technicalities.

Fraternally,

C. F. NORTHERN, Commissioner.

We assume that the report of the commissioner, as far as it goes, correctly states the facts. We cannot agree, however, in his conclusions and recommendations, which he rests, not upon any law, but purely upon a moral obligation. While a moral obligation should, perhaps, be given some consideration in controversies between lodges, yet we think it cannot be made the sole basis of a binding obligation, either between lodges of our own Order or between our Order and another fraternity. It becomes our duty to decide, not only the controversy between Chapman Lodge and Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men, but also the controversy between Chapman Lodge and Chosen Friends Lodge. The questions for decision are:

First. Shall Chapman Lodge, No. 78, reimburse Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men, No. 302, for one-half the money expended by it for nurse hire for Brother Harry Wrede?

Second. If Chapman Lodge is required to reimburse Kaskaskia Tribe of Red Men for one-half the nurse hire for Brother Wrede, shall Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, then be required to pay Chapman Lodge the amount so paid by it to said Kaskaskia Tribe?

We find from the evidence, in addition to the facts stated by the learned commissioner, that one George Longcamp was the Sachem of Kaskaskia Tribe, and by virtue of his office, the Relief Chief; that he consulted James N. McKim, the Recording Secretary of Chapman Lodge, and by virtue of his office, a member of the Relief Committee of said lodge, regarding the sickness of Brother Wrede, and Brother McKim informed Mr. Longcamp that if it was necessary to have a nurse for Brother Wrede, to get one and they, the Odd Fellows, would see them, the Red Men, through. In fact, before this occurred, Chapman Lodge had detailed some of its members to watch with Brother Wrede, and was fully cognizant and fully informed as to the condition of Brother Wrede, not only through its Recording Secretary, a member of the Relief Committee, but also knew through other members of its lodge, and knew that a nurse had been employed by Kaskaskia Tribe for Brother Wrede, and that the Red Men in good faith expected Chapman Lodge to at least partly reimburse them for the money expended for such nurse hire. Chapman Lodge, by words and by its conduct, led Kaskaskia Tribe to believe that it would reimburse said tribe, in part, for the money so expended. While it is true that Brother Wrede did not register with Chapman Lodge, as he should have done, yet Chapman Lodge was informed of his condition and took cognizance thereof, and this, we think, fulfilled all the purposes of registration. [See action on this report]. In this case Chapman Lodge was informed by Chosen Friends Lodge that Brother Wrede was in good standing, and it was told to "give him proper care according to law." Under the circumstances Chapman Lodge was bound to care for Brother Wrede.

Lodges, the same as individuals, should be bound by their contracts, express or implied. Especially is this true where, as here, a lodge deals with another fraternal order which is not familiar with the laws of our Order. The circumstances shown to exist between Chapman Lodge and Kaskaskia Tribe are sufficient, in our opinion, to create at least an implied, if not an express, contract to pay said tribe part of the money expended by it for the nurse hire of Brother Wrede, and since the amount they are asked to pay is not questioned as being unreasonable, we think it follows that they must be required to pay one-half of the nurse hire, or $37.50.

We come now to a consideration of the second question, namely, shall Chosen Friends Lodge reimburse Chapman Lodge for the money it is required to pay for said nurse hire?

In the case of Riverside Lodge, No. 282, vs. Philoxenian Lodge, No. 44, November session, 1893, page 1846, the Grand Lodge stated its views generally upon the question of the liability of lodges for nurse hire, as follows:

1. Where there is neither by-law nor contract, a lodge is not liable to pay any sum for that purpose.

2. Where there is a by-law, and no contract, recovery can only be had according to the terms of the by-law.

3. Where there is an express contract with one not a member of the lodge sought to be charged, and no notice of the by-law, there can be a recovery acording to the contract, regardless of the by-law.

We reaffirm the general principles here laid down, and if this were a case in which a brother had been afflicted with an ordinary disease which was not contagious or infectious, we should have to hold and would hold that Chosen Friends Lodge is not liable to Chapman Lodge, because the finding and evidence does not disclose any by-law or contract; but each case must stand upon its own peculiar state of facts. In this case Brother Wrede was sick with typhoid fever, an infectious disease, and declared so by the State Board of Health of Indiana. It is therefore governed exclusively by Section 129, page 97, of the General Laws, 1910, which provides that:

"When a brother in good standing is afflicted with a contagious or infectious disease, the Relief Committee may employ a nurse and assess the cost thereof against the members, to be paid with the dues for the current quarter. Where a lodge employs a nurse under such circumstances for a sojourning brother of a lodge within this jurisdiction, his own lodge shall be liable to reimburse it for the nurse hire necessarily expended in caring for him."

Under this section of the General Laws, there remains no doubt that Chosen Friends Lodge should be required to reimburse Chapman Lodge for the amount it is required to pay to Kaskaskia Tribe, and we therefore recommend the following:

First. That Chapman Lodge, No. 78, be and it is hereby directed to pay to Kaskaskia Tribe, No. 302, of Dillsboro, Ind., the sum of $37.50, being one-half the amount expended by said tribe for the nurse hire for Brother Harry Wrede, and take their receipt for the same.

Second. That Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 13, be and it is hereby directed to pay to Chapman Lodge, No. 78, the said sum of $37.50, upon the presentation to it, by Chapman Lodge, of the receipt of Kaskaskia Tribe, showing that it has been paid said sum by said Chapman Lodge.

Third. That Chapman Lodge and Chosen Friends Lodge each pay one-half of the necessary costs in this cause, taxed at six ($6.00) dollars.

General Relief Committee of Anderson vs. Windfall Lodge, No. 438.

Opinion by Geo. Shirts, P. G. Rep.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

At the last session, case No. 1343, General Relief Committee of Anderson vs. Windfall Lodge, No. 438, was continued for lack of the formal pleadings required under Sec. 54 of the Grand Lodge laws.

At this session there has been no further appearance by either party, and we assume that the prosecution of the cause here has been abandoned. We therefore recommend that the case be dismissed, without prejudice to either of the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

No. 1344.

Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, vs. C. F. Wolfe, of Caldwell Lodge, No. 271.

Opinion by H. F. Fulling, P. G.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This is a case of original jurisdiction in the Grand Lodge. In accordance with directions from the Grand Lodge, the Grand Secretary preferred charges against the defendant, C. F. Wolfe, of Caldwell Lodge, No. 281, as follows:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 6, 1909.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

At the May session, 1909, of said Grand Lodge, it adopted the following resolution in the matter of Caldwell Lodge, No. 271:

That the Grand Secretary be and he is hereby directed to make out and file charges against all persons attending the session or sessions of the Grand Lodge, either as alleged Representative or as Past Grand, from said Caldwell Lodge, No. 271, while it was under suspension and for receiving and failing to pay back mileage and per diem which may have been received by any of such persons.

Now, therefore, pursuant to said resolution and in obedience to the mandate of the Grand Lodge, I, William H. Leedy, Grand Secretary of said Grand Lodge, do hereby charge Brother C. F. Wolfe, with conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow in this, to wit: That in the month of May, 1908, the said Wolfe did procure alleged credentials, as a Representative from Caldwell Lodge, No. 271, to the May session of said Grand Lodge, 1908, to be issued to him, the said Wolfe, then and there, unlawfully, and at the same time the said Wolfe did unlawfully procure and affix, or cause to be affixed, the seal of said Caldwell Lodge, to said alleged credentials, when at the time said alleged credentials were so issued and said seal was so used, the said Caldwell Lodge was under suspension by said Grand Lodge and was not lawfully entitled to representation in said Grand Lodge. And the said C. F. Wolfe, unlawfully, did then and there, at said May session of said Grand Lodge, present and deliver said false and spurious credentials to the said Grand Lodge as genuine, then and there for the unlawful purpose of gaining admission thereto as a Representative, and for the further purpose, by reason thereof, of receiving from said Grand Lodge the mileage and per diem accorded to a lawful Representative, by reason of which facts said Wolfe did gain admission to said Grand Lodge as a Representative from said Caldwell Lodge, No. 271, at said May session, 1908, and did as such alleged Representative, demand and receive from said Grand Lodge, mileage and per diem to the amount of nine dollars and seventy-five cents, and Caldwell Lodge, No. 271, being then and there still under such suspension, and the said Wolfe then and there knew such fact during all the times herein mentioned. That, thereafter, the Grand Lodge, learning of such facts for the first time, demanded from said Wolfe said sum of nine dollars and seventy-five cents, as having been unlawfully obtained by him, but said Wolfe refused and still refuses to repay the same, or any part thereof, but on the contrary, unlawfully converted the same to his own use.

(Signed) WM. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary.

In further compliance with clause two of the above-named resolution, recorded on pages 6516 and 6517 of the proceedings of the May session, 1909, the Grand Master appointed a committee of three members of the Grand Lodge, to give notice to the accused and hear the evidence and reduce all its proceedings herein, and the evidence taken, to writing, and report the same to the next session of this Grand Lodge.

The committee, so appointed, met at the hall of Caldwell Lodge, No. 271, Oaktown, Indiana, on November 10, 1909, in accordance with the time and place fixed, and took the testimony of the defendant and various other witnesses. The report of the committee and the testimony so taken were reported to this Grand Lodge at its November session, 1909, page 6859, and was upon motion referred to this committee. For a lack of time to properly consider this matter it was continued until this session of the Grand Lodge.

We have carefully considered the report of the committee and the evidence adduced and find that the charter of said Caldwell Lodge was arrested some time prior to the May session, 1908, of this Grand Lodge, at which time the defendant, C. F. Wolfe, was the sitting Past Grand, Dr. H. F. Jones was Noble Grand, and J. H. Weinmiller was Secretary of said lodge. The charter was taken up by O. T. Montgomery, D. D. G. M., of Knox County, who died before the testimony in this cause was taken. The defendant Wolfe, the said Noble Grand and Secretary, and a number of other brothers of the lodge, were present and took part in delivering the books, seal, papers and effects of the lodge to said District Deputy. Through some manner which does not clearly appear, the usual blank credential for representation in the Grand Lodge was obtained by members of this lodge after the charter had been taken up and before the May session, 1908, of this Grand Lodge, and this blank credential was filled out with the name of the defendant, C. F. Wolfe, as the Representative, and was signed by said Jones and Weinmiller as Noble Grand and Secretary, and delivered to the defendant for representation and admission into the Grand Lodge. The defendant came to the May session, 1908, with this spurious and unauthorized credential and gained admission thereon into the Grand Lodge. He sat through the session as a member of and a Representative in the Grand Lodge. Such further proceedings were had that a warrant was drawn in favor of the defendant for nine dollars and seventy-five cents as his mileage and per diem. This warrant was received by the defendant, endorsed by writing his name on the back thereof, and he received thereon the said sum from the Grand Lodge. After said session of the Grand Lodge was over it was found that the defendant had so pretended to represent said Caldwell Lodge and had received said sum of money. A demand was made upon him to pay back to the Grand Lodge the said sum of nine dollars and seventy-five cents so received by him and he refused to do so, and still refuses to do so.

The report of the committee taking the evidence discloses that at the beginning of the trial the charges were read to the defendant and he entered a plea of not guilty. After nearly all the evidence had been taken we find that the defendant testified the second time before the committee, and near the close we find a statement by him in which he says: "Part of the charges I acknowledge, but part are absolutely wrong."

The charges were then reread by Brother Howard, a member of the committee, and the statement follows: "All but two things were admitted. The following charges were not admitted: First, the seal was not used on the credential. Second, he did not demand the money."

From this it will be seen that the defendant admits that in the month of May, 1908, he did procure alleged crentials as a Representative from Caldwell Lodge, No. 271, to the May session of said Grand Lodge, 1908, to be issued to him, then and there unlawfully, when at the time said alleged credentials were so issued the said Caldwell Lodge was under suspension by said Grand Lodge and was not lawfully entitled to representation in said Grand Lodge; that he did then and there present and deliver said false and spurious credentials to said Grand Lodge as genuine, then and there for the unlawful purpose of gaining admission thereto as a Representative, and for the further purpose, by reason thereof, of receiving from said Grand Lodge the mileage and per diem accorded to a lawful Representative, by reason of which facts he did gain admission to said Grand Lodge as a Representative, and did as such Representative receive from said Grand Lodge mileage and per diem to the amount of nine dollars and seventy-five cents, said Caldwell Lodge being then and there still under such suspension; that he then and there knew such facts during all the time herein mentioned. That thereafter, the Grand Lodge learning of such facts for the first time, demanded from the defendant said sum of money as having been unlawfully obtained by him, but he refused and still refuses to repay the same, or any part thereof, but, on the contrary, has converted the same to his own use.

When these charges are admitted as true we think the two matters denied are wholly immaterial. We find the charges sustained by the evidence.

The defendant claims to be innocent of any intentional wrong. In this contention we cannot concur. He was charged with knowledge of the law, and must have known that he was not entitled to sit in the Grand Lodge when his lodge was suspended. When a lodge is suspended its functions cease for all purposes. (Busbee Dig., Sec. 1819, and authorities cited.) Although the offense is a grievous one and should not be condoned, yet we are not inclined to mete out harsh or unusual punishment, and are willing to give the defendant an opportunity to atone for the wrong done. We feel that it would be a very mild punishment to require him to pay a fine sufficient to cover the amount of money so unlawfully received by him, and that he be and stand suspended until such fine is paid.

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That the defendant, C. F. Wolfe, be and he is hereby found guilty of the charges above set out; that he be and he is hereby fined for said offense in the sum of nine dollars and seventy-five cents, and that he stand suspended from this Grand Lodge until such fine is paid to it.

Frank M. Bateman vs. Shoals Lodge, No. 343.

Opinion by Robert W. McBride, P. G.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The appellant in this case was tried on a charge of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, was found guilty and expelled. The specific charge was bastardy. The evidence showing his guilt was uncontradicted and conclusive. The mother of the bastard child was the sister of a brother Odd Fellow and member of the same lodge.

We find nothing in the record to justify a reversal of the judgment. We therefore recommend that the action of Shoals Lodge, No. 343, be affirmed.

John H. Booher vs. Geneva Lodge, No. 634.

Opinion by H. F. Fulling, P. G.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This is a claim by Brother Booher for $4.00, one week's sick benefits from Geneva Lodge, to which he belonged and was in good standing. His lodge refused to pay and he appealed to a committee of Past Grands. The committee decided against him and he appeals.

The evidence shows, without substantial contradiction, that Brother Booher was sick from at least the 1st to the 14th of April, 1910, and there is some evidence that he was sick before that time. His business was farming lots, and it is conclusively shown that he was, during all of said time, unable to earn a livelihood.

His lodge pays $4.00 per week sick benefits after the first week. He is clearly entitled to the amount he asks.

While it is true that we cannot weigh the evidence where there is a conflict, but where there is no conflict and the evidence is all in favor of one side of a controversy, it is not only our right but our duty to consider the evidence and decide the cause accordingly.

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That Geneva Lodge, No. 634, be and it is hereby directed to pay to Brother John H. Booher the said sum of $4.00 sick benefits.

New Albany Lodge, No. 1, vs. Past Grands Committee.

Opinion by D. J. Troyer, P. G.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This is an appeal by New Albany Lodge, No. 1, from the action of a Past Grands committee which awarded funeral expenses for Addie V. Beach, deceased, widow of R. C. Beach, who at the time of his death was a member in good standing in said lodge.

On July 25, 1910, W. A. Beach, a son of the deceased, filed a request for the payment of funeral benefits due on the death of his mother. The lodge disallowed the claim and the claimant asked for a committee of Past Grands to which the matter might be referred. A committee was selected, the evidence was heard and the committee decided that the claim should be paid.

The transcript filed shows that the woman had been dependent upon her children, and the lodge assigns no reason why the claim should not be paid in accordance with the finding of the committee of Past Grands.

We therefore offer the following:

Resolved, That the finding of the committee of Past Grands is in all things affirmed, and that the said New Albany Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., be, and it is hereby, ordered to pay to the said W. A. Beach the amount specified in the by-laws of said lodge to be paid in such cases, which amount shall be not less than $15. as provided by the General Laws, 1910, Section 141.

The Grand Master appointed the following Memorial Committee on the death of Past Grand Representative J. B. Kenner:

A. N. Grant, P. G. Rep.
E. G. Hogate, P. G. Rep.
A. D. Mohler, P. G.

The presence in the building of Bro. John B. Cockrum, Grand Sire, being announced, a special committee consisting of Bros. H. M. Kean and E. E. Hastings, G. Reps., was appointed to introduce him to the Grand Lodge. This pleasant duty being performed, the Grand Master welcomed the Grand Sire in appropriate and cordial greetings, and the members extended the honors of the Order to the distinguished visitor. Upon the further invitation of the Grand Master, Brother Cockrum addressed the Grand Lodge briefly, but eloquently and in terms expressive of his deepest appreciation of the honors shown him, not alone at this time, but in the many years of the past.

Concluding his words of thanks and general remarks, he spoke in eulogy of the life and services of Bro. John F. Wallick, who now being past eighty years of age, a faithful Odd Fellow for nearly sixty years, and for thirty-nine years last past continuously the journal clerk of the Grand Encampment and Grand Lodge; and at his suggestion it was agreed that each member present should wear during this day, in honor of Brother Wallick, a carnation, some 1,200 of which were brought in for the purpose. As the words of eulogy were spoken of this gentle life the tears welled in many hearts. The reply of Brother Wallick, in his attempt to respond to the unexpected and beautiful sentiments expressed by word and flower, was equally affecting.

Brother Cockrum spoke as follows:

Grand Master, Representatives and Other Odd Fellows and Friends:

The introduction of myself to the Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment of Indiana is becoming somewhat of a joke. I have been associated with you for many years in the work in our grand old State of Indiana. Side by side and shoulder to shoulder we, as Indiana Odd Fellows, have undertaken to carry the burdens of this great Order in this State together for many years gone by, and I therefore feel that I am quite well acquainted with every member of this Grand Body and almost every visitor to this Grand Lodge. But be that as it may, of course it is an honor due to the position that requires that I be introduced to you as the Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

I appreciate most highly the courteous compliment that you have extended to me by giving to me the honors of the Order and the kind reception that you have accorded to me on this pleasant occasion. It is an honor to be at the head of this great body of men engaged in the work of relieving distress, burying the dead, educating the orphans and caring for the old and indigent Odd Fellows and their families, and providing for the widows of deceased members.

This Grand Body of Representatives from all parts of Indiana, making up the Grand Lodge as assembled here, is collected from the cream of the citizenship of every community throughout our grand domain. The men who do things; who in their every-day lives exemplify the principles of this great Order; who represent American ideas, American industries, American energy, American thrift and push, are the members of our organization. We go forward quietly doing our work without making any great pretense or show, and thus acquire to ourselves the realization of work well performed in paths most pleasant. Any man who does the work that helps his neighbor can sleep better at night for having done so. Any man that relieves the wants of his fellow men without injury to himself does an act of kindness that will be a beneficial influence in his life every afterwards. And why not give of our time and our means to the relief and help of our fellow men? How beautiful this world would be if these principles were applied to every-day life, and how comforting it would be to each of us if we could realize that we had helped some deserving person in some way not hurtful to ourselves. It would make it appear that our lives had been better lived and that the world was better for our having lived in it.

You rejoice in the fact that Indiana has the Grand Sire, and it is because of that occasion that I am here. Allow me to say that the position of Grand Sire as coming to Indiana is not a personal compliment to me. It is a compliment to the great energetic, pushing, determined jurisdiction of Indiana, with its 80,000 Odd Fellows doing earnest, careful, persistent work day in and day out every year, and it is this energy and this persistent push of Indiana Odd Fellowship applied to their desire to have the Grand Sire that has made it possible for this pleasant occasion. From a full heart I thank you for your loyal support and help, and permit me to say that I would rather be the Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows than to be governor of this great State or to be given the position of United States senator by the citizens of Indiana.

Indiana Odd Fellowship has builded and is building monuments to itself every day. This splendid structure in which we stand and hold our meetings from time to time, owned by the Odd Fellows of Indiana, is a monument to the push and persistency of Indiana Odd Fellowship unequaled in the world. It will stand as a monument to the energy, activity and farsightedness of the men making up this Grand Lodge until every particle of it and every piece of stone and steel shall have crumbled to dust. It means much to us to have this building, the most valuable piece of property belonging to a fraternal body, applied to fraternal uses, in the entire world.

And we have to boast of, as another monument to the fidelity and push of Indiana Odd Fellowship, the finest orphans' home in the world. This home, located at Greensburg, Indiana, providing and caring for the vast number of inmates it contains and that might be entrusted to it, is a lasting testimonial of the big-heartedness and energy of the Indiana Odd Fellows making up this Grand Lodge, and especially of the Rebekah branch of the Order. I have said much in the past about the Rebekah branch having to do with the Home at Greensburg, and I shall not further pursue this thought at this time.

Indiana has other things that she may well be proud of so far as Odd Fellowship is concerned, having the greatest Grand Secretary in all the wide domain of universal Odd Fellowship. And you may be thankful for another thing, that you have upon the floor of the Sovereign Grand Lodge as Representatives a body of men that wield as great influence and power in that organization as comes from any jurisdiction throughout the world.

These are things that have been brought about by the application, work, energy and ability of Indiana Odd Fellowship in carrying on the principles of our great institution, and every one of the 80,000 Odd Fellows of Indiana are loyal to the principles of our great Order and follow its flag with fidelity of purpose and determination for success.

At this time it is proper for me to speak of another honor that has come to Indiana Odd Fellowship. At the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, by the unanimous vote of the Representatives to that great body, it was decided to hold the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in this beautiful city of Indianapolis. As Grand Sire it is my duty to say that the Sovereign Grand Lodge does not expect you to provide extensive entertainment, but only expects that suitable and proper attention will be given the officers and Representatives to the session that their stay may be pleasant and their work performed under comfortable conditions. But I may say to you, as one of you, that I want to see the Odd Fellows of this Grand Jurisdiction do themselves proud on the occasion of this great meeting. The Grand Encampment on yesterday voted an appropriation of $2,000 for the purpose of defraying expenses of the meeting, and today the Grand Lodge should appropriate a sum of money that will, added to that of the Grand Encampment, make a sum sufficient to properly care for the meeting and reflect credit upon Indiana Odd Fellowship.

The citizens of Indianapolis, through the representations of the trades and commercial organizations of the city, have assured us that a sufficient sum will be raised to make it possible for us to offer inviting prizes for drills and displays that will draw a large number of people to the meeting. Now it is up to us to take the necessary action to assist in this undertaking.

We may well felicitate ourselves on this occasion for all these things, and we may well congratulate ourselves that we have been able to attain so many good results as an organization, but one of the things that I desire to call your attention to at this time. and which imposes upon me a most pleasant duty, is to remind you all that in front of me and to my right, and below me to some extent, sits a man ripe in years of useful work; ripe in years of loving devotion; ripe in years of exemplification in his every-day life of the principles of our great Order; a man who is past eighty years of age; who has gone in and out through all sections of this community for the past fifty-six years as an Odd Fellow, bearing in his daily work and in his daily life the burdens of our great institution, and living the life taught by our ritual and by our laws; a man whom it is an honor to know and to be known by; a man worthy every confidence and every appreciation of his fellow men. For thirty-nine years this man of whom I speak has been the Record Clerk of this Grand Lodge, penning with fidelity and care all of the actions of this Grand Lodge upon the many subjects that have come before it from time to time. He is entitled to our love and esteem. He is entitled to every particle of consideration that we can give him. His loyalty to this Order; his life of fidelity and care; his consistency of purpose and his purity of manhood entitle him to every compliment and every consideration that we can pay. His life is as beautiful as a flower and his character as pure as the driven snow, and as this man has so lived that he is entitled to be thus classed by me or by other men who may speak of him, it has been suggested that we set apart this day and wear in the buttonholes of our coats these flowers, secured by the Grand Lodge at the instance of the Grand Secretary for that purpose, in honor and in commemoration of the good life and the good deeds of our good brother. And now I take this flower and place it in the buttonhole of my own coat, and I request that these flowers be distributed, one to each of you here present, and that all wear them in honor of the comradeship, the fellowship, the grand life, character and nobility of this good man whom we this day honor. The man I name is Recording Secretary Bro. John F. Wallick. May every good fortune be yours; may every peace and comfort in this life be yours, and may you be spared to us for many years to come.

And now, my brothers, may peace, happiness, prosperity, good will and good cheer attend you all, and may the blessings of the Almighty rest upon you.

Geo. Shirts, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted by a unanimous vote:

Whereas, At its November session, 1910, the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, adopted the following resolutions:

"1. That we join with the Grand Lodge, the citizens and civic bodies of Indianapolis for the purpose of making a demonstration which shall be worthy of the Sovereign Grand Lodge on the occasion of its meeting here in September, 1911, and which shall show the loyalty and forcefulness of the Order in Indiana.

"2. That the sum of $2,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated out of the funds of the Grand Encampment to aid in carrying out the purposes named in these resolutions, payable to the chairman of the general committee of arrangements from time to time as the same may be needed.

"3. That, the Grand Lodge concurring, a general committee of arrangements be appointed, which shall consist of nine members, one from the Department Council, two from the Rebekah Assembly, three from the Grand Encampment and three from the Grand Lodge, the chairman of which general committee shall be Brother W. H. Leedy, Grand Scribe and Grand Secretary, who shall have authority to select the other members of such general committee."

Therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

1. That we concur in said resolutions of the Grand Encampment.

2. That the sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated out of the funds of the Grand Lodge, to aid in carrying out said purposes, payable to the chairman of said general committee from time to time as the same may be needed.

[No. 1.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, have had under consideration the resolution of Brother B. C. Moon, P. G., of No. 295, to amend section 27 of the General Laws. We find that said section is in conflict with the law as interpreted and decided by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and therefore recommend that the last clause thereof be amended to read as follows, to wit:

"Candidates shall retire during balloting, but shall be permitted to enter the lodge room a sufficient length of time to cast their votes."

J. S. Smith, P. G., from Committee on Rebekah Degree, made the following report:

[No. 2.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred a communication from the Sovereign Grand Secretary relative to the granting of a national Rebekah association charter, have had the same under consideration, and will say we are heartily in sympathy with the same and would recommend that our Grand Representatives give the matter their support in the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Wm. Killion, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

[No. 3.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred the petition of W. D. Wells, Cora Wells and others petitioning for the resuscitation of Edinburg Lodge, No. 393, located at Edinburg, Ind., beg leave to report that your committee recommend that the action of the Grand Master be approved.

Also the following report:

[No. 4.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred the action of the Grand Master in instituting and granting charter to Alice Rebekah Lodge, No. 754, located at Raintown, Vigo County, Indiana, approve his action therein.

Chas. J. Orbison, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

[No. 5.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Rebekah Lodges Defunct," report that after due consideration said portion of said report is in all things approved.

Also the following report:

[No. 6.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "Rebekah Branch" and that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "The Rebekah Branch," have carefully examined the same and beg leave to submit the following:

Indiana Odd Fellowship should feel proud of the fact that a distinguished Indiana Odd Fellow, Bro. Schuyler Colfax, was the author of the Degree of Rebekah, and, feeling that pride, should make every effort to keep Indiana at the head in Rebekah membership.

Indiana Odd Fellowship should realize that our position at the head in Rebekah membership is in jeopardy with Ohio having only 943 less members than Indiana and Illinois only 1,042 less members.

Indiana Odd Fellowship should realize that the members of the subordinate lodges are not doing their full duty when the statistics show that only one out of every 5.6 members in the subordinate lodge joins the Rebekah branch.

Indiana Odd Fellowship should realize that not only has the Rebekah branch furnished a means whereby the spheres of usefulness of our mothers, sisters, wives have been greatly enlarged, not only has it provided a way by which our brothers can grow into a larger humanity and feel the touch of a deeper sympathy, but also that by reason of the sacrificing labor of love of the devoted members of this great branch our splendid Home has become a beneficent reality.

We therefore recommend that special emphasis be laid on the matter of the Rebekah branch of our Order in the subordinate lodges this next six months; that the Grand Master's and Grand Secretary's reports on this subject be read in every subordinate lodge; that a campaign be inaugurated in every subordinate lodge immediately, with the slogan "Every Subordinate Member a Rebekah"; that every subordinate lodge be asked to send as its representatives only such as have grown into the full stature of Odd Fellowship by joining the Rebekah branch, and that henceforth every Grand officer, every District Deputy, every officer of every subordinate lodge and every member of the Order in Indiana be a booster for one of the best parts of Odd Fellowship, the Rebekah Degree.

S. L. Fenner, P. G., from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, made the following report:

[No. 7.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Frank P. Brooker and seven other brothers of Medora, Jackson County, to resuscitate Medora Lodge, No. 349, beg leave to report that we have carefully considered the same and would recommend that the petition be granted and that the Grand Master be directed to issue a charter to said lodge.

J. R. Andrews, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

[No. 8.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the application of Pine Village Lodge, No. 862, to solicit aid from sister lodges for the purpose of paying off their indebtedness, have had the same under consideration and respectfully report that the same be not granted for the reason that their distress seems to be more in anticipation than real. The membership of this lodge is made up of energetic and determined brothers, who should yet be given opportunity to solve the present difficulty alone, and then, after such determined effort, if aid is needed, the Grand Lodge will further consider the matter.

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the application of Gentryville Lodge, No. 621, to solicit aid from sister lodges, have had the same under consideration and respectfully report that the same be not granted, for the reason that no statement is made as to their liabilities, either present or future, nor have they intimated the extent of their own efforts.

[No. 10.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Mt. Ayr Lodge, No. 614, asking permission to solicit aid from sister lodges, would respectfully submit the following: Under the present conditions, having one-half of the money required to construct a suitable building, we suggest that the members of said lodge make a vigorous effort, and we believe there is sufficient business ability among the members to construct and maintain this building without aid from the sister lodges.

J. Frank Mann, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report:

[No. 16.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Decision No. 83, made by the Grand Master, report that we have carefully considered said decision.

Said decision and the statement accompanying the same read as follows:

Statement. Several years ago a brother of our lodge borrowed some money of the lodge and gave another brother of the Order and another man as surety. The last few years he has failed to pay the interest, but had paid a few dollars on the principal. We have asked him time and again to pay the note, but he will not; we do not like to sue on the note. A short time ago he got hurt and is now on the sick list.

Q. 83. Can the lodge hold any or all of his sick benefits and give him credit on the note?

A. Yes. See Grand Lodge Proceedings of 1893, page 1804. Question No. 23.

In making the decision the Grand Master followed a former decision (No. 23, 1893, page 1804), and is to be commended for his faithful adherence to precedent. But in the opinion of this committee the decision made in 1893, cited above, ought to be over ruled, and our Grand Lodge in this matter be brought into line with the decisions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. It has been held by the Sovereign Grand Lodge that sick benefits constitute a trust fund. In the opinion of this committee no lodge has a right to withhold this fund from the brother for any purpose whatever. It is a fund to be used solely for the relief of the brother during the period of his sickness and at a time when distress to him and his family might follow the diverting of it for other purposes.

This same question seems to have arisen in many jurisdictions and the frequency with which it has arisen, leads us to believe that in Indiana the question ought to be settled firmly and forever. This Grand Lodge should hold emphatically that sick benefits constitute a trust fund, and cannot be used for any purpose other than the relief of the brother, and should be paid direct to him regardless of his indebtedness, if any, to his lodge, and we so hold.

In the opinion of this committee, therefore, the answer to decision No. 83 should have been "No."

[No. 20.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, have had under consideration so much of the report of the Grand Secretary as refers to "Veteran Jewels," and report as follows:

That lodges in all branches of the Order ought to be encouraged to present the Veteran and the Honorable Veteran Jewels to their members as soon as such members are eligible to receive such honors. In no way can a lodge more appropriately attest its appreciation of the long years of membership and constant faithful devotion to our teachings, and in no way during the lifetime of a member can we exhibit to the world his loyalty and our recognition of his loyalty so well as to decorate him with our jewels, the badge of devotion.

We commend the use of the Veteran Jewel to all the subordinate lodges.

Also the following report:

[No. 21.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred certain parts of the report of the Grand Secretary, respectfully reports on that part concerning "An Appeal to Aid a Church," as follows:

We heartily concur in the action of the Grand Secretary in informing lodges that they have no right, as lodges, to either vote aid out of the treasury for purposes not permitted by the law, or to take up a collection in the lodge where it would not be lawful to vote the money from the treasury. It is not only right for the Grand Secretary to sound the warning, but it is the duty of any Odd Fellow to caution a lodge that is about to do these things. To build churches, equip and maintain them is commendable, and is an evidence of high civilization, but our funds are collected for other purposes, and we have no right to expend them in any other way than as the law directs. It is equally as reprehensible to take up a collection in an assembled lodge for purposes not germane to the organization. Each member as a citizen may give what he wants to to build a church, or pay its pastor, or repair a church, or buy an organ for it; in fact it is the duty of every good citizen to help and encourage such things, but he ought not be imposed on while he is in the lodge and asked to contribute as a member of the lodge which he did not bind himself as an Odd Fellow to support.

No lodge has a right to entertain a solicitation for help unless such appeal comes with the sanction of the Grand Master or this Grand Lodge; and neither the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge has the legal right to authorize a resort to the lodges for any purpose other than those sanctioned by our laws.

We recommend to you that the course of our Grand Secretary in the above respect be approved.

Also the following report:

[No. 22.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred certain portions of the report of the Grand Secretary, note the Secretary says the following, under the head "Taxation of Fraternal Societies":

"Under the present state law the property of our Order is taxed for civic purposes when not actually devoted to benevolent uses. As the work of our Order, and others of similar kind, is a relief to the State of some of its burdens in the care of the unfortunate, and as the funds of these societies are wholly reserved for benevolent and charitable purposes, it does not seem right that any part of such funds, or other property, should be subject to state taxation. If agreed in this, I recommend that a committee be appointed to form and present an appeal to the coming legislature for proper relief."

We beg leave to report as follows:

Every dollar of property owned by the Order of Odd Fellows is "actually devoted to benevolent uses." From the very nature of the organization and its constitution it can not be otherwise. No one has a share of stock on which he can draw a dividend; no one can lay his finger on any property of the Order—real or personal, lands or money—and say "It is mine." The Grand Lodge building belongs to the Order to hold in trust for benevolence and charity. The subordinate lodges' homes do not belong to the members of such lodges, but the homes belong to the Order, and the subordinate lodge holds it in trust as the convenient vehicle for dispensing the benevolence of the Order to its members. Whatever money a lodge may accumulate is not a fund out of which dividends are paid to members, but must be held to relieve the distressed, bury the dead, care for the sick and educate the orphan. If the lodge disbands, it can not distribute its property among the members, but it goes into the custody of the Grand Lodge to be devoted to the purposes for which it was accumulated. Such is our law. The Odd Fellows Home has been erected and is maintained by the members of the Order to care for those who by reason of tender years, or the infirmities of age can not care for themselves. It is the climax of our benevolence, and relieves the citizens of the State to that extent of the burdens of taxation.

Many lodges in this State have put up elegant buildings for lodge homes and incidentally to rent portions for business purposes. But what becomes of the income from such rental property? Does it go to enrich the membership, or to declare dividends? Not at all. It goes into the general fund of the lodge, and finally it must all go to benevolence and charity.

The Order in Indiana has erected this great temple in which we are today met. It is fifteen stories high; twelve of those stories are rented for business purposes. The income from such rentals goes into the treasury, and after the debt on this structure is paid the income there must go to charity and benevolence.

The total net resources of Odd Fellowship in Indiana today are $3,719,072.37. If you can think of such a thing, and if it could by any possibility come to pass that Odd Fellowship could be wiped from the face of the earth, what would become of these millions? The Order has no heirs on whom its property, real and personal, could descend. It could not make a will and send its title along any line, because what it holds it holds in trust. In such a catastrophe all its property would escheat to the State, and become its property for any and all purposes for which the State expends money. Ought we, then, to be taxed on this property which we hold in trust, and which can be expended only for benevolence and charity?

Churches are exempt from taxation, and rightly so; but the charity expended by the church upon its members is absolutely insignificant as compared with that expended by our lodges.

In Indiana, for the six months ending June 30, 1910, there was expended by the subordinate lodges for relief the sum of $175,311.-17, divided as follows:

Paid in weekly benefits to brothers	$107,743 44
Paid for nurse hire to brothers	12,998 54
Paid for relief of widowed families	2,072 78
Paid for educating orphans	138 00
Paid for burying the dead	35,481 10
Paid for special relief	4,389 52
Paid for maintenance of Home	12,487 79

To that extent the burden of taxation has been relieved, for much of the relief extended would have been required from the civil treasuries if not here provided for.

It seems to your committee to be the clearest dictates of justice that all property belonging to secret orders, where the whole property is devoted to benevolence, should be exempt from taxation. We therefore recommend that the incoming Grand Master appoint a committee of five to further take this matter into consideration, and to present the whole question to the coming legislature by bill or otherwise, as may seem the most prudent way.

Also the following report:

[No. 23.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The Grand Master in his report mentions appeals to him for aid as follows:

"Since the 1st of October of this year I have received communications from three different lodges throughout the State appealing for assistance, and I have informed each of these lodges that owing to the fact the Grand Lodge would meet in a short time, that they prepare and present their petitions to this Grand Body for its action. My reason for so doing was that in each of these cases I have felt that it was an important question to decide, and one that every lodge in the State would be interested in, and for the further reason that it appeared to me that their requests, if granted by this Grand Body, would bring aid in due time."

Your committee desires to say that, as the Grand Master does not name the lodges asking for aid, and that this Grand Body, in the short time of its session can not ascertain the merits of such appeals, that the incoming Grand Master be instructed to inquire into the necessity of giving aid to the lodges that have applied, and if he find the cases to be really meritorious he grant permission to solicit within the jurisdiction as provided for rendering "aid to distressed lodges," on page 109 of the General Laws.

Your committee believes this Grand Body ought to record itself as against indiscriminate solicitations for help from the subordinate bodies, whether the solicitation comes from a lodge or an individual; but where the case is meritorious, and the application is for such purposes as we are permitted to expend our lodge funds, then permission to solicit aid ought to be granted, but in no case ought permission be granted until there has been a thorough examination and the necessity is apparent.

Thos. R. Jessup, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report:

[No. 24.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report referring to the "Golden Anniversaries," have had the same under consideration and would report as follows:

Our Grand Secretary has given the name, number and where located, and date, marking the fiftieth milestone of the various lodges that have had a corporate existence for fifty years past. In calling to mind that these lodges have been organized, working, giving to the world all that pertains to the teachings of our loved Order, they being fruited in a way which gives to the persons located within their jurisdiction a full knowledge of what is meant by Friendship, Love and Truth, and while the same has been presented without recommendation from our Grand Secretary, we would say that we believe that it is right and the lodges should commemorate the day in some suitable way, making public the fact that we are happy in knowing that interest has not lagged, that work has not slackened, that fraternity has been gladdened by the existing fact, and would recommend to each and every lodge that they do so act and commemorate their Golden Anniversary.

Also the following report:

[No. 25.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of our Grand Secretary's report designated "Secretaries," having had the same under consideration, would report as follows:

Our Grand Secretary has well said there is no more important officer in the subordinate lodge than its secretary. A secretary should be selected of known ability, of sterling integrity, a willing worker, always ready to add a word in some way helpful to his lodge. He should be a person so devoted to Odd Fellowship that he would give it his time in planning, assisting in execution, and putting into practice, everything for the uplift of his lodge. And we want to commend that part of the Grand Secretary's report wherein he calls for a meeting of the various secretaries of the different subordinate lodges in this, our jurisdiction. They should meet at least once with our Grand Secretary during each term and consult as to what is best for the Order and how best to accomplish the results desired, and we would recommend that it should be a part of the duties of the secretaries of our subordinate lodges to meet as a body, at least once during each term for the purposes above suggested.

Also the following report:

[No. 26.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report referring to our Grand Sire, having had the same under consideration, would report as follows:

The office of Grand Sire of this great organization, numbering as it does, two millions of people, he becoming the nominal head, directing the work, outlining the policies to be followed, giving advice, telling us how and in what way Odd Fellowship can be made more beneficial to mankind; the office requiring a man of unquestioned ability, of sterling integrity, endowed with the gift of knowing what to say and how to say it; being the judge-advocate of our wants, of our trials, of our tribulations, of our bickerings, of our jealousies, of our failures—remembering that we are members of this great family, simply children, comprising in numbers the greatest combination of brain, heart and willing workers—requires a man of extraordinary ability. Each and every Grand Sire who has been honored by this great fraternity has been a man capable of commanding, of laying out and directing the work, of carrying on all of the interests, of Odd Fellowship; and this year, there comes to this great jurisdiction a brother loved by all, second to none in executive ability, in honesty of purpose; untiring as a worker, with a heart filled with love. Indiana presented to the Sovereign Grand Lodge our worthy brother, John B. Cockrum for the office of Grand Sire, and the Sovereign Grand Lodge met our petition and handed back to us a certificate of election saying, "We gladly comply with your request, and give to Indiana its first Grand Sire." And in thus complying with your petition, they have said to the jurisdiction of Indiana, "You came to us and asked; we granted, and we now ask at your hands that you give to this splendid brother a token of your esteem and affection, as well as gratitude, by being out in the open engaged in our work, giving to the world an evidence of what Odd Fellowship is, what it is doing, what it has done for the purpose of gladdening the hearts of those in need, those in distress, those needing the fraternal care of this loved brotherhood.

And we say to you, Grand Sire, the 80,000 brothers, the 40,000 sisters, are today ready to become helpers to you in the work before you; and to the Order at large, we would say, "Come, give us not one, but ten thousand, worthy additions to this, our loved Order," thereby saying to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, through our Grand Sire, "We have added to our number these worthy applicants that have come to us to know what is meant by the motto of Odd Fellowship." Each and every one of us is ready to say to our Grand Sire, "We love you; we honor you; we trust you and are followers in your wake," and in conclusion would say "Our brother, God bless you."

J. S. Smith, P. G., from the Committee on Rebekah Degree, made the following report:

[No. 27.—Adopted.]

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report, viz., "Sanders Lodge, No. 307, and Martha Rebekah Lodge, No. 269," beg leave to report as follows:

We have gone over all the correspondence relative to this matter thoroughly. It is the judgment of this committee that the action of Sanders Lodge in this matter was beneath the dignity of Odd Fellowship; besides, the discourtesy tendered our Grand Master was far worse. We would recommend that the incoming Grand Master, after due notice to Sanders Lodge, No. 307, visit this lodge and use his best efforts to adjust matters satisfactorily, and, if in this event he is not accorded the courtesy and respect due him as Grand Master, that he at once arrest the charter of Sanders Lodge, No. 307, and report his action at the next session of the Grand Lodge.

On motion the Grand Lodge adjourned until 8:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Following adjournment at 1 p. m. a special train conveyed 485 brothers to the Home at Greensburg, where an inspection of the institution gave to each one a better understanding of both necessity for and work done there in behalf of the aged, the orphaned and the afflicted.

Jacob Joel, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana.

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "Dedications," respectfully report that we rejoice in the fact that during the term just ended four new and magnificent buildings were erected to the great principles of friendship, love and truth. We hope that the erection of lodge halls by our subordinate lodges will continue until each and every lodge in our great State has a home of its own dedicated to the eternal principles of our noble Order.

Brother Isaac M. Jordan, Grand Representative from the Grand Jurisdiction of Ohio, being in the building, Brothers E. E. Hastings, G. Rep., and H. M. Kean, G. Rep., introduced him to the Grand Lodge. He was received with the honors due his position, and in briefly addressing the Grand Lodge spoke words of congraulation and encouragement.

The Grand Master announced the following memorial committee on the deaths of Bros. Henry F. Schrader and Charles Comley:

Philip Zoercher, P. G.
John Dersch, P. G.

Jacob Joel, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to the Odd Fellows' Talisman, heartily endorse the report of the Grand Master recommending the Talisman. The publication is doing much good for the Order and should be encouraged by the entire membership with their support.

G. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to "District and County Meetings," submit the following:

We heartily agree with the Grand Master in the benefits derived from county meetings, and recommend that the incoming Grand Master request the D. D. G. M's. to hold these meetings in their respective districts.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Lodges Resuscitated," submit the following:

We concur in his action and hope for the welfare of these lodges.

In Memoriam

JAMES B. KENNER

PAST GRAND MASTER
PAST GRAND REPRESENTATIVE

Born, November 5, 1846
Died, August 26, 1910

"Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last."

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "1911," beg leave to submit the following:

We heartily agree with the Grand Secretary and recommend that he be given the authority to carry out his suggestions, and that the Representatives read that part of the Grand Secretary's report to their respective lodges.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Two Generous Offers," have considered the same and beg to submit the following:

We Hoosier Odd Fellows have long known the generosity of our Grand Sire and his love for Odd Fellowship, and we are proud of the fact that he has not only the welfare of Indiana Odd Fellowship at heart, but by his generous offers has shown to the world that he has the welfare of Odd Fellowship of the world at heart. And when his term of Grand Sire shall have expired we feel confident that he will have endeared himself to the Odd Fellows of the world, as he has long since to those of Indiana. Then, as now, we shall feel proud that Indiana's favorite son was so honored. We extend to Brother Cockrum our thanks for these generous offers, for we feel confident that they will accomplish much good.

E. G. Hogate, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

Your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred certain parts of the report of the Grand Secretary, would respectfully report that we have had under consideration that part of said report on "Indiana's Position in the World," and hereby desire to commend the Grand Secretary for setting before us matters of statistics of so much interest.

We desire to give emphasis to the statement made that in Encampment membership we are only 247 ahead of Pennsylvania, and in Rebekah membership that we are only 943 ahead of Ohio. In these two branches of the Order we stand now at the head of the list. May not the day be near at hand when we shall have to recede from these high positions? It will happen unless these two branches of the Order bestir themselves. Brothers, every subordinate lodge member ought to belong to an encampment and a Rebekah Lodge. Thus he becomes a full-fledged all-around Odd Fellow. Without these he has only crossed the threshhold of the beauties and the benefits of Odd Fellowship.

We earnestly recommend that every member of a subordinate lodge join these two branches and enjoy their beautiful work, and partake of the rich lessons in Friendship, Love and Truth; Faith, Hope and Charity they teach.

W. I. Hughes, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to the "Official Receipts," beg to report that we have considered the same and are sorry to learn that some lodges will persist in violating the law by using any other receipt than the ones provided by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which are called official certificates and which alone are recognized as evidence of good standing. We are of the opinion that those lodges that persist in this violation of the law think the only laws to be obeyed are those that carry a specific penalty for violation.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Master's report relating to D. D. G. M.'s have had the same under consideration and are pleased to hear of the excellent work done by these brothers the past year, and would recommend the following:

That the Grand Secretary be instructed to prepare a blank for the D. D. G. M.'s to make reports on to the Grand Master each quarter, setting forth the general conditions of the lodges in his district and the visits made during the quarter.

E. R. Perrin, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Our Great Membership," have considered the same, and in view of the excellent condition of our lodges we heartily concur in the opinion of the Grand Secretary that we should show an unprecedented gain the coming year. United, harmonious and persistent effort is needed and must be had. A subordinate lodge membership of eighty-five thousand by the end of 1911 is not too high an aspiration, and should be attained. Good men in sufficient numbers are awaiting our invitation to become Odd Fellows, and we must get them.

We are proud of our many achievements in the past but cannot rest upon those laurels. "Go Forward," is the word of our Grand Sire, and let us add "to 85,000 in 1911."

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Relief," have examined the same and note with much satisfaction indeed that Indiana lodges stand close to the head of all jurisdictions in this great feature of our work. Almost 5,300 brothers and 129 widowed families have felt the friendly grasp of the helping hand in time of sickness and distress, and during the term ending June 30. over $175,000 was distributed for the relief of our membership.

Truly this alone is a great work, and we may well be proud of it.

H. M. Kean, G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Secretary's report relative to

"The Question of New Lodges," beg leave to report that we have carefully examined the same and, believing that it demanded the passage of certain legislation which this committee suggested, the matter was referred by this committee to the Legislative Committee for such action as it deemed just and proper.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to "Complete Statistics of Lodges," report that we have examined same and find that the tables given contain in small space an accurate history of lodges numbered from 111 to 170 inclusive.

These statistics will be of inestimable value to each lodge of our Order when the compilation is completed, and proves of real value and interest to the lodges whose compilation is completed each term.

Our Grand Secretary deserves the heartfelt thanks of every Odd Fellow in Indiana for this free-will offering of his incessant labor to the cause of Indiana Odd Fellowship.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "Lodges," respectfully report that we have carefully examined the same and heartily approve everything our Grand Master has said upon that subject.

We trust that each representative to this Grand Body will on his return to his home use his best and most earnest endeavor in making his lodge more active and enthusiastic than it has ever been before.

A. D. Mohler, P. G., from the Committee on By-Laws, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on By-Laws, to whom was referred the report of the Deputy Grand Master regarding his action in relation to the By-Laws and Amendments to By-Laws of certain subordinate and Rebekah lodges, beg leave to report that we approve of his action therein and recommend the approval of his action by the Grand Lodge. We also call attention to the concluding paragraph of his report and urge the lodges of this jurisdiction to observe the recommendation therein.

We would further recommend that the Deputy Grand Master report to the Grand Lodge the amendments and by-laws that he has disapproved, the same as the Grand Master reports his decisions, so that the action of the Deputy Grand Master may be reviewed by the Grand Lodge. We urge the adoption of such a rule by this Grand Lodge, believing it would be a benefit to the subordinate and Rebekah lodges.

Chas. J. Orbison, P. G., from the Committee on Rebekah Degree, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "Our Home at Greensburg," and that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "The Home," after close consideration, beg leave to submit the following:

We most heartily commend the Board of Directors, Sister Lewis and her able assistants, for the splendid management of the Home. Our Home—how much of sentiment is involved in those two words. It is not a boarding-house, not an asylum, not an almshouse, but a home for Odd Fellows where love and sympathy and mercy and brotherhood abide. God bless "Our Home," and may it continue to be, as it is now, a place where the orphan can be mothered, where the aged can get the comfort of fellowship, where the sick and infirm can feel the touch of the Good Samaritan.

We commend the suggestion of the Grand Secretary for a permanent endowment fund and suggest the advisability to the various subordinate and Rebekah lodges of giving entertainments to start this fund.

We also desire to suggest that no better place could be selected for an Odd Fellow to leave at least a part of his fortune at his death than giving it to increase this endowment fund.

In conclusion, we congratulate the Odd Fellows of the State in having such a home so splendidly managed, and we ask for the continued co-operation of all lodges in its support.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "Rebekah Ritual," after due consideration, beg leave to submit the following:

We recommend that the District Deputy Grand Master of those counties wherein are located those lodges who have failed to exchange their old ritual for the new be ordered to visit those lodges immediately and make a demand on such lodges to make the required exchange. Upon the failure of a lodge to comply with the demand within thirty days, that its charter be suspended.

The report of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals was taken up and the several opinions considered.

Case No. 1343, Relief Committee of Anderson vs. Lodge No. 438, was adopted. (Page 7419, this journal.)

Case No. 1340, Lodge No. 78 vs. Lodge No. 13, was considered. The opinion was discussed by Brothers George Shirts, H. F. Fulling, Thos. R. Jessup, W. H. Talbott, E. E. Hastings, E. G. Hogate, Edwin Farrer, J. J. Rutledge, and Geo. P. Bornwasser. Brother Hastings offered the following:

I move that the following words be stricken out of Decision No. 1340, beginning with the word, "Lodges," on said page, in line 26.

as follows: "Lodges should not undertake and should not be permitted to stand upon the strict letter of the law in caring for a sojourning brother found sick in its jurisdiction."

The motion was adopted and the opinion amended accordingly. As amended the report was adopted.

The hour for the special order, the exemplification of the secret work, having arrived, on motion the order was suspended.

The second special order, being the nomination and election of officers, was taken up.

The Grand Master appointed the following clerks and tellers to conduct the election:

Clerks—Edwin Farrer and H. C. Clippinger.

Tellers—H. M. Kean, E. E. Hastings, E. R. Perrin, D. V. McClary, G. P. Bornwasser, H. J. McSheehy, Jacob Joel and Benj. Franklin.

There being but one nominee for Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Representative for one year, Grand Representative for two years, and Grand Trustee, on motion it was ordered that the Assistant Secretary, Brother J. F. Wallick, cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for the nominees named, which being done they were declared elected as follows:

Grand Master—

J. M. STIPP, of No. 168.

Deputy Grand Master—

GEO. P. BORNWASSER, of No. 83.

Grand Trustee—

BENJ. FRANKLIN, of No. 44.

The record showed the nomination of Brother Bornwasser and Brother E. E. Hastings for the two-year term of Grand Representative, and Brother Miller for the one-year term. Brother Hastings declined, and on motion of Brother Bornwasser the record was ordered changed, to show that Brother Bornwasser was nominated for one year and Brother Miller for two years. They were accordingly so elected.

At the May session of the Grand Lodge the following were named for Grand Warden:

A ballot was taken for Grand Warden. The clerks and tellers retired to count the vote, and while so doing the Grand Lodge proceeded with business.

An appeal was made in behalf of Brother Fred Neff, a blind brother having membership in Logansport and living in Lafayette, who was in distress. A collection, amounting to $88.77, was taken up and presented to him, for which he expressed his deep gratitude.

Consideration of the report of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals was resumed.

A. D. Mohler, P. G., from the special committee on the death of J. B. Kenner, P. G. Rep., made the following memorial and report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Special Committee on Memorial to Brother James B. Kenner, P. G. M. and P. G. Rep. beg leave to submit the following:

James B. Kenner.

The old guard is rapidly passing away. One by one the veterans of our Order are falling out of the ranks. Those who have so greatly contributed to the growth of our noble Order in this jurisdiction, the fruit of whose labors we are now enjoying are rapidly becoming but a memory. It is right and proper that we who remain should give due honor to their memory, and award to them meed of respect which is so justly their due.

The writer of this memorial would feel that he had been derelict in duty if he did not at this time voice his tribute of respect to the memory of a prominent member of this jurisdiction who was, in all that the word implies, his friend and brother.

Brother James B. Kenner, Past Grand Master and Past Grand Representative, was a native of Maryland, having been born in that State November 5, 1846. When he was but a mere lad his father and family removed to Indiana, and settled on a farm in the northern part of Huntington County. Brother Kenner's life here was the usual one common to the early farmer settlers of this State, assisting in clearing up the farm and doing such work as a boy would do in making a home and doing his share in the incidents of farm life.

When President Lincoln issued his call for troops to put down the rebellion, young Kenner, though but sixteen years of age, made an effort to enlist, but was rejected. A year later he was more successful, and joined the Union Army, becoming a member of the One Hundred and Forty-Second Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He served his country during the remainder of the war, and at its close he was mustered out of the service and returned to private life. Immediately he set about to obtain an education. He entered Roanoke Classical Seminary, and in 1870 graduated from that institution, having taught several terms of district school to secure the means to pursue his studies. At the same time, while he was teaching and while a student in the seminary, he studied law, and in the fall of 1870 he entered the law department of the Indiana State University at Bloomington, graduating from that institution in 1871. In that same year he began the practice of law in Huntington and soon took rank as a leading attorney at that bar. He continued in the practice of his profession, with the exception of the interval when he was in the United States service during the Cuban War, until a few months before his death. As an attorney he took high rank and was recognized by all his associates as a leading member of his profession.

At the outbreak of the Cuban war he tendered his services to the Government, and received a commission as paymaster with the rank of major. He served until the end of the war, when he returned to Huntington and resumed the practice of his profession. He also began the writing of a history of the Spanish-American War, which history was not quite completed at the time of his death.

In 1880 he was elected to the state legislature and at once rose to prominence, becoming the leader of the majority in the House. He was made chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and it was in this position that he wielded a great influence. The most important laws passed during that session of the state assembly bore the impress of his mind, and have become leading factors in the civilization of this State.

In December, 1875, he was initiated into Lafontaine Lodge, No. 42, and soon after became a member of Silica Fons Encampment, No. 88. He passed the chairs in the subordinate branches of the Order, and in 1879 became a member of the Grand Lodge, and in 1884 of the Grand Encampment. In the Grand Lodge he was elected Grand Warden in 1884, becoming Grand Master in 1886. At the expiration of his term of office as Grand Master he was elected Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge for the term of two years, and was then elected to the same body as Representative from the Grand Encampment, thus serving two full terms in the Sovereign Grand Lodge, a distinction that previous to that time had been conferred on but one other person from this Jurisdiction, the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, author of the Rebekah Degree of our Order. He attended the Grand Lodge for full sixty sessions, and for ten years was a member of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals. He was also a member of the same committee in the Sovereign Grand Lodge. He was an earnest advocate for the admission into the Order of young men 18 years of age.

When Brother Kenner became Grand Master he found the Order in this State in a condition of lethargy and he at once took measures to revive an interest. His efforts were successful, and the Order made an unprecedented gain, and the influence of that gain has continued to the present time, placing the Order in this Jurisdiction in the highest rank, and making this Jurisdiction the admiration of all sister jurisdictions.

But, perhaps, the greatest honor and most enduring that was attained by Brother Kenner was the result of his efforts to establish in this State a Home for aged and indigent Odd Fellows, their wives and orphans. The Home at Greensburg may well be considered as a monument to his memory. In his first report as Grand Master he urged the establishment of a Home, and from that time on he was unremitting in his efforts to that end. Shortly after the expiration of his term as Grand Master he organized the Odd Fellows Home Association of Indiana, which body was incorporated under the laws of the State. The work of the Association was largely educational, and for the purpose of creating an interest in the enterprise circular letters were sent from time to time to all the lodges and encampments in the State, and by this means the members of the Order were made to realize the great good of this benevolence. In 1893, when all the funds that had been collected were lost, when the Association had but a small parcel of land in the northern part of the city of Indianapolis, after a meeting of the directors of the Association, which meeting was one of gloom and sadness, Brother Kenner sat for some moments in deep thought. Suddenly he looked up and said to the writer, "I am going to dissolve this corporation and put all its property into the control and keeping of the Rebekah Assembly. The sisters have nothing else to do, and I know they will carry the project to a successful termination." Our magnificent Home, of which we are all justly proud, is the result of that determination.

The writer of this memorial knew Brother Kenner perhaps better than any one present in this meeting. He knew him as a schoolmate in the seminary, as an associate in young manhood, as a partner in business, and above all as a true friend and brother. Some persons looking on the exterior did not know the true heart that beat within. In all the relations of life he labored for the good of mankind and the community. As a citizen he was ever ready to do his part for the public welfare. He loved our noble Order, and while he was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic; of the Spanish-American Volunteers, and a charter member of Huntington Lodge, No. 93, Knights of Pythias, his entire attention was given to Odd Fellowship. He advocated its principles and teachings, and many a member of the Order has been benefited by his brotherly acts in time of need and trouble.

On the morning of August 26, 1910, Brother Kenner passed away at his home in Huntington, after an illness of several months resulting from disabilities contracted during his service in the Civil War. His funeral, on the 28th, was attended by a large concourse of friends, showing the respect in which he was held by the community. Ritualistic services were conducted at the residence by the Grand Army and at the cemetery by the Odd Fellows, Grand Master A. L. Miller and Grand Secretary W. H. Leedy assisting. "After life's fitful fever, he sleeps well." We can only say in passing, "Farewell, Brother; we hope to meet you in the Eternal Home;" and though the clods of the grave may rest upon thy body and its frailties, yet we will ever keep your virtues green in our memory.

"Soldier, rest, thy warfare o'er,
Sleep the sleep that knows no breaking.
Dream of battlefields no more,
Days of danger, nights of waking."

Fraternally submitted,

A. D. MOHLER,
ENOCH G. HOGATE,
A. N. GRANT,
Committee.

Which was adopted by a standing vote.

John H. Dersch, P. G., from the special committee on the death of Brother Henry F. Schrader, P. G., and Chas. Comley, P. G., submitted the following:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Special Committee on Memorial, beg leave to present the following report:

HENRY F. SCHRADER.

Since last we met in this magnificent temple several of our co-workers have joined the band of inhabitants of that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens, and it is meet that we pay some attention to their passing away.

Brother Henry F. Schrader, of Schiller Lodge, No. 138, I. O. O. F., was a native of Perry County, Indiana, and after attaining maturity moved to Evansville, Indiana, where he became a member of Schiller Lodge. From the time of his entrance into the lodge he became a working member of the Order, and soon passed through the chairs of his subordinate lodge and became a member of this Grand Lodge in 1904. As District Deputy of Vanderburgh County his services were of the highest order. He was twice a candidate for Grand Warden, and each time was second in the race.

CHAS. COMLEY.

Another Brother—Charles Comley, District Deputy of Benton County—also passed away since our last meeting. At the time of his death he was District Deputy of his county, and during his term had worked faithfully for the upbuilding of Odd Fellowship.

These brothers were universally loved in their communities and in their daily walks of life tried to exemplify the great teachings of our Order and were thus prepared for the summons that called them home.

The lesson that we, the living, should take from this is to so live that we may be ready at any time to meet our summons, which we all know is sure to come.

Fraternally submitted,

JNO. H. DERSCH,
PHILIP ZOERCHER.

The report was adopted by a standing vote.

Consideration of the report of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals was resumed.

Case No. 1,347, Lodge No. 1 vs. Committee of Past Grands (page 7424, this Journal), was discussed by Jacob Best, Geo. P. Bornwasser and George Shirts. The report of the committee was then adopted.

H. M. Kean, G. Rep., from Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to "Juvenile Membership," having had the same under consideration, would report as follows:

The subject-matter of juvenile membership becoming a part of Odd Fellowship is not provided for by law. Your committee is heartily in sympathy with the cause as suggested by said report, as the child is the hope of our Order. We would therefore recommend that our representatives at the coming session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge be instructed to bring the subject-matter (of establishing a court of juvenile members as suggested by the Grand Secretary), before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and there use their best efforts to bring about the establishment of such court.

W. I. Hughes, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, at the request of certain Grand officers, desire to offer the following on the subject of "Delinquent Notices":

The present form provides no place for the Financial Secretary to make a record of the date on which he notified a brother of his delinquency. Therefore, we recommend the following:

That after the present supply of delinquent notices is exhausted, the Grand Secretary be instructed to prepare a suitable form with a stub, as described above, so the financial secretary's record may be complete.

E. W. Swarthout, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report regarding "Fires," beg leave to report that we have considered the same and recommend that the semi-annual report of the subordinate lodges be provided with a clause wherein the lodges shall report the amount of fire insurance carried on lodge buildings and on personal property.

Also that Section 154 of the General Laws be amended to provide that lodges shall carry insurance to the amount of seventy-five per cent. of the estimated value of its property.

This will materially decrease the great amount of losses suffered each year by the subordinate lodges by fire, causing financial embarrassment, discouragement and frequently the loss of the lodge altogether.

We would further recommend that this subject-matter be referred to the Legislative Committee for consideration.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred such portions of the Grand Secretary's report as relates to "Reports of Lodges," Tables of Comparison," and "Roll of Honor," beg leave to report that we have considered the subjects referred to, which show much careful and painstaking preparation, and our Grand Secretary is to be heartily commended on the same.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Members Dropped for Non-Payment of Dues," beg leave to report that we have examined the same carefully, especially the data submitted therewith.

While our loss is not so great as in some former years, yet it should be materially reduced. Much good can be accomplished if our lodges will be very careful to select efficient secretaries.

We would recommend, also, that a list of delinquent members whom it is desirable to retain be returned to the Grand Secretary at the end of each quarter, and that he be requested to write such members a personal letter direct, which may help to lessen this great loss.

U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., from the Legislative Committee, made the following report, which by unanimous consent, was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Secretary's report relative to the "Question of New Lodges," beg to report that the question of new lodges is an important one to this Grand Lodge.

This committee feels that there are many places in Indiana where new lodges ought to be instituted. and that if new lodges were instituted in the localities where needed, such communities would be benefited thereby, many men and women would be led to higher ideals of life and conduct through the influence our Order would exert over them, aside from the pecuniary benefits which would flow out to the individual members of such lodges and the increased revenues which would accrue to this Grand Lodge through their institution.

Your committee feels that many new lodges ought to be instituted and that at least twelve ought to be instituted during the year which is about to begin.

We realize that it takes time, money and earnest effort to go into the communities where new lodges are now needed, and we realize too, that many of the worthy D. D. G. M.'s of Indiana are not financially able to give the time, expend the money and devote the effort necessary to work up and institute such lodges without some compensation for their services, and your committee having duly considered the question submitted, respectfully recommend that our General Laws be so changed that the charter fee now due and payable to the Grand Lodge be made payable to the District Deputy Grand Master instituting such lodge or lodges, to compensate him in full for the time, labor and money expended by him in working up and instituting such lodge or lodges.

Your committee therefore recommend that Section 7 of Subordinate Lodge Laws be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Expense. The charter fee of thirty dollars provided for by Section 5 hereof shall be received by the officer instituting a subordinate lodge. in full for his services and expenses in instituting the same.

U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., submitted the following:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, propose that Section five (5), Article one (1), of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Eligibility. No person shall be eligible to a seat in this Grand Lodge unless he shall have served regularly as a Vice-Grand and Noble Grand at least one legal term in some subordinate lodge, except only in the case of the first Noble Grand and the first Vice-Grand of a new lodge, and also in case of a brother elected to fill an unexpired term of a Noble Grand of Vice-Grand where such election is permitted by general law; and also unless he shall be a member in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge. And these qualifications shall be, in all cases, certified to by the Noble Grand and Secretary of all lodges concerned, and sealed with the seal of the same before the Grand Lodge Degree shall be conferred upon any applicant for membership, or Representative-elect.

P. G. No. 460.
J. McBETH SMITH,
P. G. No. 19.

Which, on motion, was laid over under the rules.

Geo. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., submitted the following:

Resolved, That Sec. 29 of the General Laws, edition of 1910, be amended as follows: To substitute the word "shall" for the word "may," so that said section shall read as follows:

Sec. 29. Bond. Officers and Trustees having charge of lodge funds shall give bond and security in such reasonable amount as shall be fixed by the lodge. The lodge shall purchase bonds for its officers from a responsible corporation authorized by law to become surety thereon.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Master's report pertaining to the loan and investment of the funds of subordinate lodges among its members, after due consideration, respectfully recommend that Sec. 159 of the Revised General Laws, 1910, be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 159. Not to Be Divided, Investment. The funds and properties of a lodge are not subject to be divided in any manner among the members individually, or between one lodge and another, but shall remain for its legitimate purpose the property of the lodge, subject to the liabilities and authority of the Grand Lodge. Such funds may be invested in such property as will be useful in furthering the objects and purposes of the lodge, or will produce a safe income for its benefits, title thereto being in all cases vested in the lodge, and may be expended in carrying out the legitimate purposes of the Order, but shall not be expended, donated nor paid out for any other purpose whatever; Provided, That a lodge shall not loan funds to, nor invest funds with, its own members.

C. W. Blackburn, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and ordered printed and laid over until next session.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred the resolutions of Past Grand B. C. Moon, relative to Sections 216, 218, 223, 227, 228, and 232 of our General Laws, have carefully considered the same and recommend that the proposed action be indefinitely postponed. Said resolutions are as follows:

"Whereas, the decision of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Journal 1908, report 25, page 653, in the Louderback case, makes necessary several changes in our trial procedure, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That Sections 216, 218, 223, 227, 228, 232 of our Subordinate Lodge Laws be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 216. Reading Depositions. Depositions and parts of depositions found to be admissible in evidence shall be read to and considered by the trial committee along with the testimony of witnesses examined in the presence of said committee. But depositions and parts of depositions which the trial committee shall decide are inadmissible and shall order stricken out, shall not be considered by the committee in making up its finding; nor shall they be included in its report of the testimony to be read to the lodge, unless requested by the attorney for the lodge or by the defendant or his attorney. If such request be made, the depositions or parts of depositions so stricken out shall be reported to the lodge and the lodge shall decide whether to consider such excluded depositions or parts of depositions in determining the guilt of the accused. In case of an appeal to the Grand Lodge the depositions and parts of depositions stricken out and excluded by the trial committee and reported to the lodge shall be copied into the transcript, together with the rulings thereon by the lodge.

"Sec. 218. Credibility of Witnesses. The trial committee, subject to review by the lodge, is the judge of the credibility of witnesses and the weight to be given to the different items of evidence.

"Sec. 223. Acquittal. A finding by the trial committee or a majority thereof that the accused brother is not guilty or that the charges are not sustained, shall be final and conclusive, unless the lodge, after the second reading of such report, shall order that such brother be tried again for the offense, as provided in Section 229.

Sec. 227. Report to Lie Over. The report shall lie over one week, at the expiration of which time the evidence and finding of the committee shall again be read in open lodge, and a vote by ballot shall be taken on the question whether the finding shall be sustained. The question shall be determined solely by the vote of the members present, and no appeal shall lie from a refusal to concur in the finding. Vote may be postponed for one week in case of imperative necessity. Members who refuse to vote and are not excused by vote of the lodge shall be subject to punishment for contempt.

"Sec. 228. Separate Vote on Each Count. If the accused was prosecuted on two or more different charges, the lodge shall vote on the question of concurring in the finding as to each charge separately.

"Sec. 232. Suspension by Operation of Law. Should a majority of a lodge sustain the finding of a trial committee that the defendant is guilty and the required vote can not be procured on the night of the trial for any of the penalties named in Sec. 230, the brother so tried shall stand suspended for a period of three months, at which time he shall stand reinstated without action of the lodge."
